THE OBITUARY

Cameron was born July 17, 2000 in Cleveland, Ohio. From the beginning, Cameron had a 'light up' the room personality and his smile was infectious.

While living in Cleveland, Ohio, he attended Maple Heights High School until he moved to Columbia, South Carolina where he attended Eau Claire High School. As a student at Eau Claire High School, Cameron enjoyed playing basketball.

Cameron had a fashion style of his own and took pleasure in being a stand out young man. He was well known for wearing Ohio State attire. He enjoyed listening to a vast variety of music. He enjoyed creating outrageous, but delicious meals. Cameron was always willing to lend a helping hand. He was charismatic and able to adapt to his surroundings with ease. He was a loving, but protective older brother of his sister, Ariyah. He spent quality time with Ariyah as he enjoyed helping her with homework. Cameron also enjoyed attending his aunts' churches.

Cameron was preceded in death by his great-grandparents, Frank and Willie Singley.

Cameron is survived by his mother, Carolyn Scott; and his sister, Ariyah King; along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends residing in Ohio and South Carolina.
