Psalm 23

¹ The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

² He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

³ He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

⁴ Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

⁵ Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

⁶ Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Tribute

Horace "Hawk" Jones, was one of the best bass players I know and was also my friend.

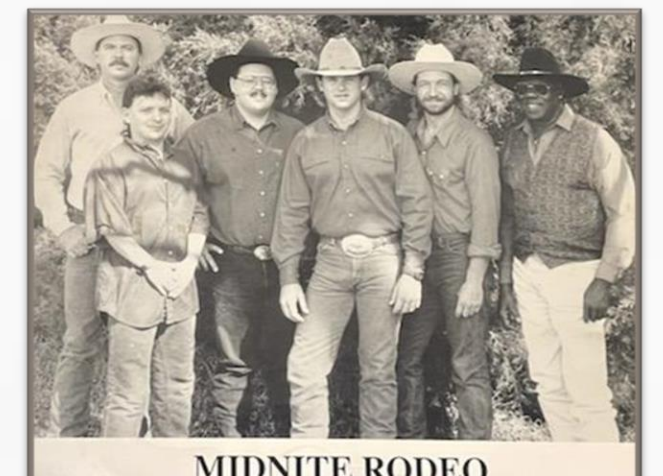

Horace was a loyal friend, a serious musician, with the fastest fingers of any bass player I have ever known. He was also a great singer with an unusual voice in the lowest range. I often accused him of being a much better singer than I could ever be.

Most importantly; Horace was a real man who loved and cherished his beautiful family. He will be sorely missed. I am more than sure he is in a better place now. So, God bless you, my friend and brother.

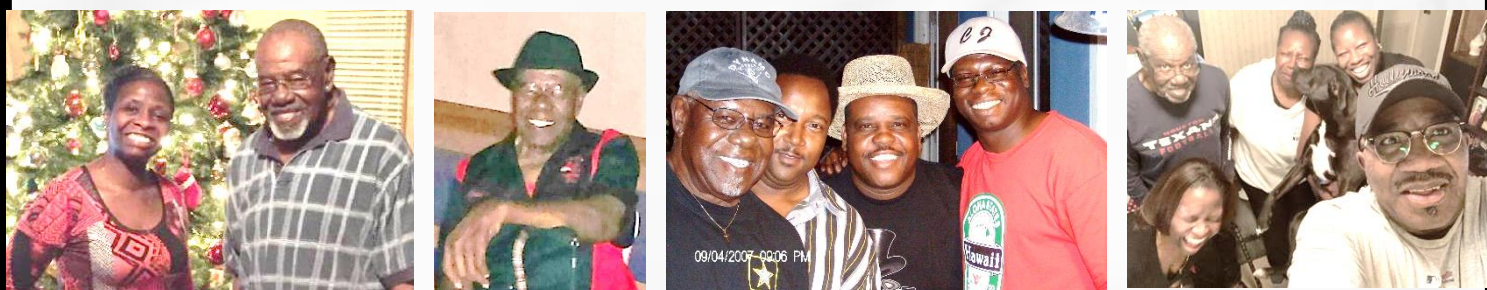

Love, Charles W. Wright

PS

We made some beautiful music together all through the seventies, and this I will also cherish. We'll meet again and we'll do it all over again only this time, we'll do it even better. Until then, God bless you, my brother.

Horace "Hawk" Edward Jones

Horace Edward Jones of Angleton, TX passed away on Saturday, June 26, 2021 at HCA Hospital, Clear Lake after a lengthy illness. He was born in Houston in the Acres Homes subdivision to Garfield and Elnora Jackson then later adopted by Edward and Mary Jones.

Horace attended the Home of the Mighty Lions, Jack Yates High School. And like every other young man, he was drawn to athletics, football and track & field; however, there was something else that pulled on him even more....the Music. Within him, the Music grew allowing him to sing Bass, and play the Bass Guitar instrument. Alongside the music, he was also affectionately known as "Hawk" because of his love of motorcycle driving, "like the wind" speed he would drive, and smooth like a bird in flight.

He is preceded in death by his Wife, Cassie Jones; Son, Chawyer "Choya" Jones; Brothers ~ Garfield Jackson, Jr., Lawrence "Bubba" Jackson; Sister ~ Eldora Jones-Taylor; Parents ~ Edward, Mary, and Estella Jones.

He leaves to cherish his memories and legacy:

Children ~~ Devette "Deeda" Jones-Robinson (Claude), Esther Jones, Horeis Jones, Nicole Andrade (Albert);

Grandchildren ~~ Clarisa Robinson, Chad Faas, Tywayne Risinger;

Great Grandchildren ~~ Chad Faas, Jr. and Sara Faas;

Siblings ~~ Leo Jackson (Linda), Clifton Jones (Kimberly), Nathaniel Jones, Loretta Jones-Edmondson (David), Barbara Jones-Turknett (Daniel), Edna Mae Jones;

More Family ~~ Angie Jackson-Fields (Herman), Brandon Jackson, Sammie Jackson (wife of Lawrence Jackson), Derwin Suttle (Los Angeles, CA), Maurice Jones, Rachel Jones, Brandon Jones, Guy Jones, Jason Jones, Tavia Jones, Marva Tanner (George), Ora Lee Cobbin, Versey Cobbin Greenwood (Roy), and Charles Lee Jones;

And to the numerous additional cousins, friends, Facebook family and fans
Thank you for sharing the journey with me.

Music has always been a driving force for Horace. He never limited himself to musical styles, either singing or playing his instrument.

Here is a small example of his accomplishments.
