⁷ I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

⁸ Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Obituary

Sarah Lee Keys Taylor was born on December 29, 1938 to Allie Lee Keys, Sr. and Savannah Lucille Cooks Keys in Sandy Point, TX. The family moved a few years later to the Keys Farm in Rosharon, TX.

Sarah accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Bethelder Missionary Baptist Church. Sarah moved her membership to Worldwide Church of God in 1972. In the late 1990's, she joined Community Christian Fellowship where she faithfully attended until her health failed her. Sarah enjoyed serving in whatever capacity that was needed: such as Deaconess, Prayer Warrior, Greeter, Hospitality Coordinator and singing in the Choir.

Sarah loved serving the Lord and encouraged others by spreading the Word, praying, quoting scriptures and ministering to anyone in need. Sarah honored and cared for her parents and elderly family members during their time of need. She loved attending family functions, grand and great-grandchildren school and sporting events. Not only did she attend events, she took her delicious desserts and "goodie bags" as well.

Sarah had a magnificently warm infectious smile. She developed friendships all over the United States while attending church functions, as well as visiting her children in Wyoming.

Sarah learned to sew, cook and bake as a child; these hobbies would lead into her entrepreneurship. She was a very talented seamstress and baker, known to many of her customers as "The Cake Lady".

She was preceded in death by her parents, Allie Lee, Sr. and Savannah Cooks Keys and brother, Allie Lee Keys, Jr.

She leaves to cherish and honor her precious memories:

Three Children and their spouses who she considered her children as well - Terry L. Keys, Sr. (Martha), Lawrence C. Keys, Sr. (Donna) and Brenda Fay Wilson (Eddie).

Siblings - Verna Keys, Billy Keys (Catherine), Brenda Randall (Charles).

Ten Grandchildren - Terry Jr., Katressa, Jermaine, Kesha, Josh, Jacob, Terrence, Lawrence Jr., Stephanie and Jeremy.

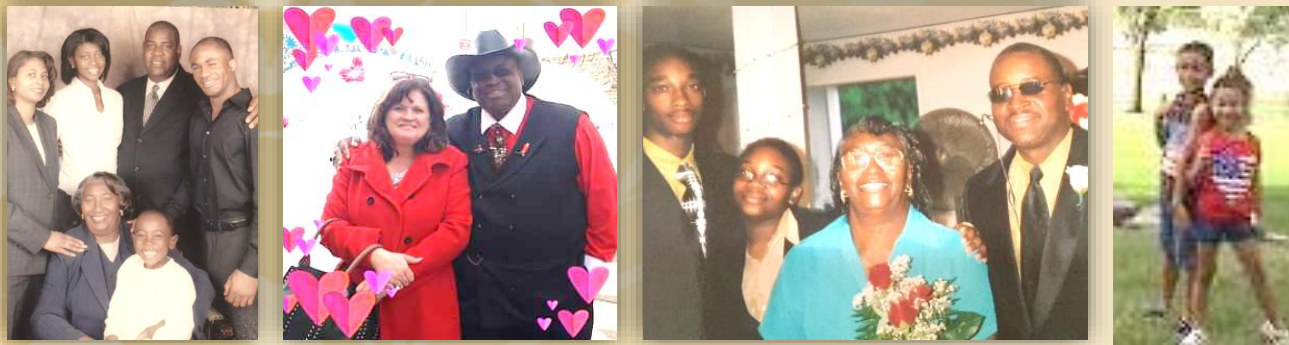

Fifteen Great-Grandchildren - Terry III, Nathan, Jacey, Adrianna, Isabell, Scott, Duran, Nadia, Alyssa, Alexandria, Kayden, Sabri, Zaylee, Caleb and Lawrence III.

A host of nieces, nephews, play sons and daughters, cousins and many, many other relatives and friends.

"We didn't realize we were making memories we just knew we were having fun."

If Roses Grow in Heaven

If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my Mother's arms
and tell her they're from me.

Tell her I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.

Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.

*Your Loving Children,
Terry, Lawrence & Brenda Fay*

Poem of Life

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.

For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.

*Love, Your Siblings
Verna, Billy & Brenda*

The Best Grandmother In The World

When we say we had the best grandmother in the world, we really mean it. Granny or Mama Sarah as we called her, may have been small in stature but her presence was huge. She lit up a room with her big personality and that smile. Mama Sarah was loving, sweet and kind.

We knew she loved us not because she said so, but because she showed it. She took the time to show up to our games, graduations and baby showers. She also would take the time to send loving cards with her favorite scriptures. Going to her house meant you were leaving with not just a hug, but groceries, toiletries, and definitely a cake or two. We could always count on her to offer godly advice and an encouraging word. Thank you Mama Sarah for always being there for us and for praying for us daily. We know you are in heaven watching over us and continuing to pray for us.

Love, Your Grandchildren & Great-Grandchildren

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call:
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.
