

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set me free.
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
and not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared,
MISS ME BUT LET ME GO.

For this is a journey we all must take
and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
MISS ME BUT LET ME GO.

Obituary

Mr. Eddie R. Blackwell

Eddie Blackwell was born on November 12, 1949 in Jefferson, South Carolina. He was the sixth child of eight children born to the late KC Blackwell and Carrie Louallen Blackwell.

Eddie received his formal education in the Chesterfield County Public School System. Being religiously trained by his parents, he joined the Mt. Canaan Baptist Church, Jefferson, South Carolina early in life and became a very faithful member. He served on the usher ministry with pride and dignity.

Eddie was a very kind person, always willing to help anyone in need. He never spoke unkindly to anyone.

His working career began in North Carolina at a Brickyard now known as Bordens Brickyard. He retired from Caro-Knit in Jefferson, South Carolina. After he retired from Caro-Knit, he opened Eddie's Place a game room for the children of the community. Eddie also provided transportation for the Department of Social Services. He later opened his own detailing business known as Mirror Image. Eddie always gave the best detail service in town.

Eddie was married to Cynthia Lockart, they were blessed with four lovely children.

Left to cherish his precious memories and celebrate his life are: two daughters, Marlyn Flanders, and Camelia Blackwell; one son, Eddie Blackwell, Jr.; five grandchildren, Codara, Erin, Audrey, Eddie III, and Emonté; two sisters, Jenette Miller, and Dorothy Myers; three brothers, Willie H. Blackwell, Elijah (Chucky) Blackwell, and Cornell Blackwell; three brothers-in-law, Emsley (Leroy) Lockhart, Richard (Pewee) Lockhart, and Alvin (Bill) Myers; three sisters-in-law, Shirley Chambers, Toxie Blackwell, and Janice Blackwell; a host of nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

In addition to his parents, Eddie was preceded in death by a daughter, Erica Ophelia, a sister, Ethel Massey, one brother Charles Blackwell.
