

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
For thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

A Beautiful Prayer

This morning when I wakened
And saw the sun above,
I softly said, 'Good morning, Lord,
Bless everyone I love.'
And right away I thought of you and said a loving prayer,
That he would bless you specially,
And keep you free from care.
I thought of all the happiness
A day could hold in store,
I wished it all for you because
No one deserves it more.

A Mother

*A mother seems to understand the things that can't be said;
a mother goes beyond our words and reads our hearts instead.
A mother shows the love she knows
With tenderness so true;
When God gave us a mother
We're glad God gave us you.*

*Even though we saw her as the "Best Mother Ever," our Mom never saw herself that way, never gave herself a pat on the back, never looked for the applause, but today, as your son and daughter, we do just that for you. For every lesson learned, every hurt that was soothed, for being our biggest cheerleader, always giving us the best of you; Thank you,
We love you.... and yes, Mom, we're okay!*

Obituary

Mrs. Nancy Blondell Newman Threatt

Nancy Blondell Newman Threatt was born January 31, 1949, in Jefferson, South Carolina to the late Hoyt Neal Newman and Patsy Beckham Newman. Patsy Bell departed this life unexpectedly and God blessed the family with a second mother, the late Effie Little Newman.

Blondell's formative years were spent in Jefferson, South Carolina. During her teen years, she became a member of Mount Canaan Missionary Baptist Church, Jefferson, South Carolina; a proud moment in her life, beginning her walk with Jesus.

Blondell loved school, always telling the stories of how she wrote on the ground, used cardboard boxes and loved anything that had to do with letters, was a spelling bee champion of the county, a straight-A student at Shannon Elementary School and Petersburg High School. She met the love of her life, Billy in the 9th grade where they complimented each other academically. Blondell graduated as valedictorian and attended South Carolina State University for two years.

Blondell and Billy married November 29th, 1969, this union was blessed with two children, Billy Jr. and Tiffany. She began the life of a U.S. Airmen's wife traveling the U.S. and abroad with her family. Although she couldn't drive, she was often Billy's GPS; we were never lost as long as she was in the passenger seat.

Blondell had a passion for caring for children. She worked outside the home for many years as a Child Development Assistant. She loved to cook, knit, collect dolls, rooster figurines, Christmas ornaments and maintain a meticulous household. She loved reading scriptures, Sunday school, family reunions and taking trips to visit her grandchildren and sisters/brothers. Blondell and Billy retired to Pageland making Flint Ridge their church home. She was active with the Usher Ministry, Sunday School Ministry, Youth Ministry, and Ministers, Deacons, and Trustee Wives. Blondell's living legacy is the intentional LOVE of her family, Newmans, Beckhams, Threatts, her friends and church family.

Blondell departed this life on Friday, March 3, 2023, in her husband's arms, surrounded by her children and family. She leaves to cherish fond memories her husband of 54 years, Billy Threatt Sr; two children, Billy Threatt Jr of Everett, Washington and Tiffany (Ian) Henry of Newport News, Va; two grandchildren, Dacia Oxendine and Dejuan Henry of Newport News, Va; two great-grandchildren, Joell Oxendine and Gianna Upton of Newport News, Va; four brothers, Connie (Geraldine) Newman of Charlotte, NC, Rev. Eugene Newman of Pageland, SC, Hoyt Neal (Johnnie) Newman Jr. of Jefferson, SC and Leo (Delphine) Newman of Pageland, SC; four sisters, Sylvia Ree Beckham of Philadelphia, Pa, Sue (Thomas) Carver of Jefferson, SC, Lynn Kennedy of Jefferson, SC and Latrelle (Jessie) Williams of Jefferson, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.

In addition to her parents, Blondell was preceded in death by four brothers: David Newman, John Newman, Billy Newman and James Newman.
