

Her Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away,
her journey's just begun
Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.*

*Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days or years.*

*Think how she must be wishing that we could know today
How nothing but our sadness, can really pass away.*

And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched For nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.

Obituary Ms. Flora Bell Dixon

Ms. Flora Bell Dixon, 84, Chesterfield, South Carolina, entered eternal rest on Thursday, November 23, 2023 at Cape Fear Hospital, Fayetteville, North Carolina. She was born on July 30, 1939, in Chesterfield County, South Carolina to the late Clarence and Ann Liza Watson. In addition to her parents, she was the youngest and preceded in death by six brothers: T.J. Watson, Lee Roy Watson, Coleman Watson, C.L. Watson, Weldon Watson, Willie Ray Watson, and her three sisters: Rose Ann Alexander, Lillie Mae Watson, and Bertha Watson.

Ms. Dixon attended high School in Chesterfield County, South Carolina. She loved her family, friends, and others. She was a born-again Christian at Mount Airy AME Zion Church, Chesterfield, South Carolina. Ms. Dixon later moved from Chesterfield, South Carolina to Cheraw, South Carolina in 1977 and attended two holiness churches: Maranatha Fellowship under Pastor Allen Usher, and Emmanuel Temple Church of Deliverance, under Bishop Jerry T. Hardison. She relocated to Fayetteville, North Carolina in February 2000 and became a member of Pelt Chapel Holiness Church, which is now New Beginning Christian Faith Center under Pastor Geraldine Thompson.

Ms. Dixon seriously enjoyed praying, praising and worshiping God in Spirit and in Truth. She loved her church, pastor, and church family. She loved singing, watching Christian movies, traveling and driving. Ms. Dixon loved her children and made unbelievable sacrifices for them to be successful and spiritually connected to God. She was a faithful woman of God even in the most difficult times in her life. Ms. Dixon dedicated her life to caring and providing for her children both physically and emotionally. She constantly seemed to know how to help her children overcome problems and succeed in spite of them. Before her departure she made it very clear to her children that she will be all right; her journey just begun. She said, “Don’t worry about me because I’m going to be in joy and peace; don’t worry about me.”

Ms. Dixon is survived by her two sons: Pastor Wilbert L. Watson (Co-Pastor Estell Watson), Pastor Robert J. Dixon (First Lady Lisa Dixon); one daughter, Evangelist Patricia A. Turner (Rev. Paul Turner). She is also survived by 18 grandchildren: Natasha, Christopher, Ashley, Antonio, Nicole, Yolanda, Katrina, Daniel, Cedric, Jacia, Marchawn, McKenzie, Isiah, Samuel, Julian, Justin, Jalen, Candace, and 20 grandchildren, and 23 great grandchildren.

Your The Broken Chain

We little knew that afternoon that God was going to call your name, In life we loved you dearly;
in death we do the same
It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day
God called you home
You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same,
But as God call us one by one,
the chain will link again.
