Tribute To “Sylvia”

“Cherish the Memories, My Sister”
My sister, my friend,
I will always remember,
The smiles, the laughter, my sister.

My sister, the memories we shared,
the talks, the journey of life, we chose the joy of each moment, my sister.

My sister, the way you and only you could rotate those eyes,
and retain a smile, all at the same time,
only a sister can cherish and understand, my sister.

My sister, these memories they will always be imprinted, in my mind,
my heart, and spirit, my sister.

My sister, this eternal journey,
this everlasting journey is the peace,
the joy, the rest, the hope, the love, you cherish, my sister.

My sister, the last conversations, we had,
The last words, I said is that I love you,
you said, “I love you more”, my sister
“I will cherish the memories”,

Love You,
Rudene Rebecca Robison-Felton,
“Your Sister”

Obituary

Ms. Sylvia Dorteia Robinson-Blackwell

July 31, 1942 ~July 6, 2019

Mrs. Sylvia Dorteia Robinson Blackwell was born on July 31, 1942, in Lancaster, South Carolina to the late Earlie and Flonnie Sowell Robinson, Sr. Sylvia quietly closed her eyes and entered into eternal life on Saturday, July 6, 2019 at Kershaw Health Hospital, Camden, South Carolina.

Sylvia became a member of Crossroad Missionary Baptist Church at an early age. She was an active Christian worker, serving on the usher board, involved member of Sunday school, and as a member of the junior choir. Later, she joined the Mt. Cannon Baptist Church, in Jefferson, South Carolina, where she was an active member, usher and sang on the choir.

Sylvia graduated from Hillside High School in Heath Springs, South Carolina. As a sophomore in high school she competed in the Miss Kershaw Teen Beauty Pageant. She won and was crowned Miss Kershaw Teen Beauty Pageant of Kershaw, South Carolina.

Sylvia always had an eye for hair styles, hair designs, and fashion. She truly wanted to become a licensed cosmetologist or an interior designer. These were her career goals, aspirations and ambitions. Sylvia’s career goals turned her into a different direction when she met, fell in love and married, Mr. Willie H. Blackwell, Sr. Her career goals developed into motherhood and marriage. Sylvia was employed in the textile industry until her retirement. After retirement, she enjoyed working at Christian Childcare Center in Jefferson, South Carolina.

Sylvia leaves behind to cherish fond memories: her ex-husband, Willie H. Blackwell, Sr.; sons, Willie H. Blackwell Jr. (Cristina), Monroe, NC, Tony Blackwell (Angela), Stanley Blackwell and Danny Blackwell, Jefferson, SC; step-daughter, Shaneka Clyburn-Patterson (George), Lancaster, SC; 12 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren; brothers, Earlie Robinson, Jr. (Loise), Chesapeake, VA, Rev. Dr. Waldo Robinson (Emma Jean), Hazel Robinson, Elmore Robinson (Susie), Jefferson, SC, Hiawatha Robinson, Kershaw, SC, Curtis Robinson, Tulsa, OK.; sister, Rudene Robinson-Felton, Englewood, NJ; nieces raised as sisters, Kathy Robinson-Danzy, Jefferson, SC and Sara Lovanne Robinson-Sullivan, Charlotte, North Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Mary Robinson-Parker; two brothers, Johnnie Robinson and Hade Robinson, Sr.
