Obituary

Mrs. Gladys McQueen Ellerbe

Gladys McQueen Ellerbe was born on September 23, 1936 to the late Holliman Nathaniel McQueen and Jessie Hancock McQueen. She transitioned home on Friday, December 2, 2019 in Pineville, North Carolina.

Gladys accepted Christ at an early age and became a member of St. Paul Baptist Church, Cheraw, South Carolina. She later joined Pee Dee Union Baptist Church where she served as a faithful member of the Pee Dee Choral Ensemble and Senior Ministry until her health failed.

Gladys enjoyed traveling and was an avid reader. She was a graduate of Coulter Memorial Academy in Cheraw, South Carolina. She retired from Ina Bearing Company, Cheraw SC with over thirty years of service.

Love of family, helping people and volunteering was how Gladys chose to make a difference within her community and the lives of others. Her volunteer efforts consisted of Girl Scout Leader, voter registration, poll worker, NAACP, Cheraw Public Library and Council on Aging.

Gladys had a humble, caring spirit that was felt by all who knew her. Gladys leaves to cherish fond memories: sons, Otis Scott (Sharon), Savannah, GA and Melton Ellerbe, Jr., Southern Pines, NC; daughters, Jacqueline Ellerbe Shannon, Nelvin Ellerbe, Cheraw, SC and Nancy Crawford (Marcus), Charlotte, NC; special nieces, Jessie Ford, Charlotte, NC, Willie Magwood, Baltimore MD, Barbara Sharper, Dorothy Wilson and Junetta Wilson, Cheraw, SC: daughter-in-law, Julia Bridges, Rock Hill, SC; son-in-law, Michael McDuffie, Sr., Chesterfield, SC; a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Gladys was predeceased by: her husband, Melton Ellerbe, Sr.; two daughters, Gwendolyn McDuffie and Melody Ellerbe.
