We love you and you will reign in our thoughts forever, for this is not a goodbye but See You Later.

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an after glow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the waves.

Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

*I'd like the tears of those who grieve
to dry before the sun.*

Of happy memories that I leave when my life is done.

Obituary

Ms. Peggy “Peg” Ann McFarlin Evans

The beautiful life of Peggy Ann McFarlin Evans began on April 15, 1950 to the late Mack “Dee” Karry and Annie Bell Diggs McFarlin in Chesterfield, South Carolina.

In her early years, Peggy attended the South Carolina public schools in Chesterfield, South Carolina. She graduated from Chesterfield High School. After receiving her educations, she worked in the textile industry. Peggy began working at Chesterfield Manufacturing and later moved to Pageland Manufacturing where she was employed until she retired.

At an early age, Peggy joined Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church of Chesterfield, South Carolina. As a faithful member, on March 2, 2009 she was installed as a Deaconess. Peggy was the president of the missionary, lead singer on the gospel choir and served on the usher board.

Peggy was a charter member of the Forest Dale Chapter #379 O.E.S. of Chesterfield, South Carolina in 1978.

Peggy enjoyed gardening, cooking, sewing, watching sports with her sons and spending time with family were some of her favorite past-times. Her most favorite past-times were attending gospel concerts, reading, and doing crossword puzzles.

Peggy’s passing has torn the hearts of many that loved and admired her, especially her family. She leaves to cherish memories: sons, John Wesley Evans, Rodney (Janice) Evans, Chesterfield, SC, Stacey (Dorothy) Evans and Michael (Christine) Evans, Cheraw, SC; daughter, Annie Evans Lockhart, Cheraw, SC; sisters, Dorethea McDuffie and Genora Dixon, Chesterfield, SC; special grandson she
