*The flowers that you sent that day,
The cards that you mailed along the way,
The service you stopped by to render,
The gifts you brought with thoughts so tender,
The prayer you said which played a part
In easing that pain that was in our hearts,
Each helped us to find the strength to bear
The loss of one we held so dear*

*It was to us a great comfort indeed
To see you in the time of sorrow and need;
So from the hearts which you tried to help mend
We thank you sincerely again and again
For being such truly wonderful friends.*

Benediction

Do not judge a biography by its length,
Nor by the number of pages in it.
Judge it by the richness of its contents

Sometimes those unfinished are among the most poignant

Do not judge a song by its duration
Nor by the number of its notes
Judge it by the way it touches and lifts the soul

Sometimes those unfinished are among the most beautiful

And when something has enriched your life
And when its melody lingers on in your heart
Is it unfinished?
Or is it endless?
