

“Together Again”

*Do not stand at my grave and weep.
 I am not there. I do not sleep.
 I am a thousand winds that blow.
 I am the diamond glints on snow.
 I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
 I am the gentle autumn rain.
 When you awaken in the morning rush.
 I am the swift uplifting rush,
 of quiet birds of circling flight.
 I am the soft star that shines at night.
 Do not stand at my grave and cry.
 I am not there.
 I did not die.*

Do all things decently and in order.

Obituary

Mr. Dilliam A. Huntley

Dilliam A. Huntley son of the late James and Ola Gainey Huntley, was born in Pageland, South Carolina on March 25, 1928. He departed this earthly life on Wednesday, July 22, 2020 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Dilliam was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Thelma (Rushing) Huntley. He was a devoted and caring husband and father.

Dilliam was educated in the Chesterfield County Public School System. He retired from Bethlehem Steel, in Baltimore, Maryland as an assembly worker.

Dilliam was active in the local church community and always professed his faith in Jesus Christ.

Dilliam served in the United States Army during World War II.

He leaves to cherish his memory: a brother, Douglas Huntley, Pageland, SC; a sister, Muriel Huntley Johnson of Brooklyn, NY; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

In addition to his parents and wife, Dilliam was preceded in death by his sons, Lawrence and Michael Huntley, six brothers and a sister. Dilliam, with his jovial personality and powerful healing testimonies will be missed!
