

Where Does A Mother's Love Go

*Where does a Mother love go
 When she is no longer there to give it?
 Where does her warmth and kindness end up
 When she leave the ground to
 Soar through the clouds
 On a rendezvous with God?
 What happens to her strength
 Her passion her elegance, her grace,
 When her body is planted in the ground
 Like a marigold in the spring?
 What becomes of those she left behind
 Weak and still in need of nurturing
 When she can no longer be there to nurture them?
 Shattered pieces of them go with her.
 Hearts shrivel and dry
 From unrequited emotion.
 Where does a Mother's love go
 When she can no longer be there to give it?
 Perhaps she'll tell me on the other side.*

Benediction

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

*I'd like to leave an after glow of smiles
when life is done.*

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the waves.

Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

*I'd like the tears of those who grieve
to dry before the sun.*

Of happy memories that I leave when my life is done.
