

A Lifetime to be Remembered

*They say memories are golden Well may be that is true
We never wanted memories,
We only wanted you,*

*A million times we've needed you A million times we've cried
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.*

*In life, we loved you dearly In death we love you still,
In our hearts you hold a special place,
No one could ever fill.*

*If we could build a staircase
And heartache build a lane,
We'd walk the path,
And bring you back again.*

Revelation 21:3-5

And I heard a great voice out heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

Still Missing You

They say there is a reason,
They say that time will heal,
But neither time nor reason,
Will change the way we feel.

For no one know the heartache that lies behind our smiles, No one knows how many times we have broken down and cried.

We want to tell you something so there won’t be any doubt, You’re so wonderful to think of but so hard to be without.

We cannot bring the old days back, when we were together.
The family chain is broken now, but memories live forever.
