"Grandma"

In my rose garden of memories I see you standing there.
An angel in the sky who taught me how to care.
I smell The White Diamonds you'd always wear.
I look up at the sky and ask God are you there?
If flowers grow in heaven Lord, Then pick a bunch of them for me, then place them in my grandmas arms and tell her they're from Me.
Please Jackson that's who she's known to be but I know her as my grandma who meant the world to me.
I know you're now not suffering
But I hate to see you go
Your time with us was special in every single way, thank you for your presence we all wish that you could stay, to my family and friends I know what she would say, don't be sad.
“Ya damn skippy tell everybody I said Hey”
Sleep in peace grandma and we will never forget this day save a Spot for me in heaven see you again some day.

Granddaughter, Shawniqua Hamilton

Obituary

Elease Sowell Jackson, 83, of Charlotte, North Carolina gained her wings the morning of Tuesday, January 26, 2021 at her residence. She was born November 6, 1937 in Kershaw, South Carolina to the late Gertrude Sowell Jackson and Leonard Jackson Sr. Elease was raised in Charlotte, North Carolina and grew up on Thomas Ave, where she attended Piedmont School.

When Elease was in her early twenties, she moved to New York City, where she worked and raised her children. In her spare time, she enjoyed singing and picked up a part time job in a Jazz nightclub singing. Once Elease's children got older, she decided to move back down South to be back around her siblings and to be closer to her other family in Kershaw, South Carolina which she called "The Country".

Elease was The Matriarch of our family, she was the sweetest person ever, anyone she came in contact with, was always left with an everlasting impression of her. She loved to travel, one of her favorite places to go was Myrtle Beach, where she would go the and stay at her favorite hotel, The Diplomat, and she also enjoyed going to Atlantic City.

Some of Elease's fondest moments were her road trips with her granddaughter Alesheia, she was her Co-Pilot, she loved being around her children and her grands and great grands, they were the icing and cherries to her cake. Family gatherings were her greatest moments where she could bond with her grands and great grands.

During her spare time, Elease was a member of Raes Playze Adult Care, where she looked forward to going there to play Bingo and see her other Senior friends. When she was home in her spare time, she enjoyed coloring in her coloring book and teaching her great grands Alexandria whom she called "Alexandra" and Elijah how to play Pitipat.

Elease was so loved by her family, her presence, her laughter and her favorite saying of "NO" will be truly missed. We each hold a special place of her in our hearts and many lasting memories. She may be gone, but NEVER Forgotten.

Elease is survived by four children, Monica Jackson of Charlotte, NC, Dianne Jackson of Charlotte, NC, her baby girl, Joan Hairston-Jackson of Jacksonville, FL and Raymond Jackson (Imogen Jackson) of Charlotte, NC; five siblings, Doris Kirkland (Tom Kirkland) of Charlotte, NC, Louise Gray of Charlotte, NC, Marian Ratliff of Charlotte, NC, Joan Jackson of Charlotte, NC and Ronald Jackson of Manhattan, NY; thirty-seven grandchildren, Reginald Jackson, Ronald Jackson, Arlene Cooke, Lawrence Jackson, Woodrow Jackson, James Murray (Carmen Matias), Jamel James, Lavette Brown, Alesheia Fields (Kendal Fields), Koudris Pounder, Robert Jackson, Prince Murray (Taeisha Murray), Brandon Jackson, Kevin Hill, Keith Lynch Jr., Shawniqa Hamilton, Ashley Hill, Cordrese Pounder, Devone Gordon, Travis Hamilton, Raymond Hamilton, Dominiqua Hamilton, Leiarna Jackson, Trent Jackson, Joshua Jackson, Cynthia Griffin, Candice Griffin, Tiara Griffin, Scott Jackson, Latoya Griffin, Deshawn Griffin, Alex Jackson, Raymond Jackson, Elliot Jackson, Bianca Jackson, Nina Franklin, Isaiah Jackson; sixty-three great grandchildren, thirteen great great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.

Grandma

*I thought of you today but that's nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday and the day before that too.
I think of you in silence and I often speak your name.
Now all I have is memories and your pictures in my phone.*

Your memory is my keepsake which I'll never part.

God has you in his keeping.

I have you in my heart.

I love you grandma.

Great Granddaughter, Londyn Elease
