

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restores my soul:

*He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.*

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

*I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies:

*thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:*

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Acknowledgments

*The family of James Earl Williams would like to express their heartfelt gratitude for kind expressions of love and sympathy extended to them during this period of bereavement.
May God continue to bless you.*

...Until We Meet Again
Those special memories of you will always bring me a smile
if only I could have you back for just a little while Then we could sit and talk again
just like we used to do you always meant so very much and always will too
The fact that you're no longer here
will always cause me pain
but you're forever in my heart
until we meet again

Obituary
Mr. James Earl Williams

November 28, 1948– February 24, 2021

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race. I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me. The crown of righteousness. Which the Lord, the righteous judge will award to me on that day and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.”
II Timothy 4:7-8

James Earl Williams also known as “Junior” was born November 28, 1948 in Washington, DC to the late Leroy Williams and Roberta C. Lockhart McMillian. He was the only child.

James attended Chesterfield County Schools during his younger years. He later attended school in the District of Columbia where he eventually graduated from Calvin Coolidge High School in 1967.

James was drafted in 1968 to the United States Army where he served two tours in the Vietnam War. He specialized in mechanics of aircrafts (Huey’s and Chinooks). James was honorably discharged in 1974. In 1975, he was employed at Davidson, Airfield where he served as a supply technician. In 1976, James was employed with the District of Columbia Armory as a Turbine Engine Mechanic. In 1984, James began his career as an alcohol and drug counselor for the federal government.

James moved back to Jefferson, South Carolina to see about his mother in 2008. James confessed Christ and was a member of Hopewell United Methodist Church. James served as Treasure of Finance and a Trustee.

James leaves to cherish fond memories: loving wife, Annie Mae Williams; three daughters, Jaime E. Williams, Roswell, Georgia, Justina (Harry) Fox, Cordele, Georgia, Jeri E. Williams, Perry, Georgia; one son, Jason Williams, Washington, DC; seven grandchildren; one great-grandchild; one step-son, Sheldric Dunlap, Jefferson, SC; two step-grandchildren; fourteen sisters-in-law; seven brothers-in-law; one cousin he considered a sister, Lillie Ingram, Jefferson, SC and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

In addition to his parents, he was proceeded in death by his son, Timothy Hamilton.
