Obituary

Ms. Linda Jean Marshall

Linda Jean Marshall departed her loving family on Friday, February 26, 2021. She was born in Brooklyn, New York on July 2, 1956 to the late Addie Marshall and James Cashaw.

Linda was mother to Kareem Jackson and Shenequa Jackson. She raised her children with love and devotion in Winston Salem, North Carolina.

Linda confessed Christ at an early age and joined Tabernacle of Prayer of Jamaica, Queens. She later became a member of Ministry of Fullness, Word of Faith, Incorporated, Winston Salem, North Carolina and even with her health declining she continued to serve the Lord.

Her hobbies included going out to lunch with her children, playing games, home improvement shows, and walking her beloved dog Chicklet. Linda was a graduate of Franklin D Roosevelt High School of Brooklyn, NY. She would later earn her CNA license in nursing. As an employee of Brookridge Retirement Community, many know Linda for her caring disposition and helpfulness. Aside from nursing, she was a caregiver of young children especially of babies and toddlers.

In addition to her parents, Addie Marshall and James Cashaw she was preceded in death by a grandson, Quak'mon Isaiah Commodore.

She is survived by her daughter, Shenequa Jackson and son, Kareem Jackson, both of Winston Salem, NC. Aside from her children she doted on, Linda is survived by her siblings, Tracey (Martin) Cashaw Asemota of Brooklyn, NY, James (Carolyn) Cashaw Jr. of Bronx, NY and Derek (Jessica) Cashaw of Jacksonville, FL; close cousins, Shelton (Beverly) Powe of Atlanta, GA, Earl Wesley Stots of Kyle, TX, and Olethea Scott of Charlotte, NC, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
