

Bro,

I am so glad that we had the years God allowed us to love and enjoy one another. I do feel so lost, but I know God will take care of me.

I will always keep the memory of your loving smile, looking like our mother. Thank God love is not affected by death and for the beautiful love you lived.

I will always love you.

Love Linda

Obituary
Deacon Eddie Lee Mumford Sr.

Deacon Eddie Lee Mumford Sr., son of the late Conwell and Maria Chapman Mumford was born in Chesterfield County, South Carolina on April 9, 1948. He went home to be with the Lord on Thursday, March 26, 2021.

Eddie grew up attending St. James A.M.E. Zion Church in Chesterfield, South Carolina. He served as Sunday School teacher and held other positions for many years before moving his membership with his wife and family to Catoe Chapel Church of God in Christ. Eddie was faithful member of Catoe Chapel COGIC serving as a deacon and president of the Men's Department. He was a servant to God, his family, church and community and served with the upmost love, respect and dignity.

Eddie graduated from Gary High School in Chesterfield, South Carolina and was a honors graduate from Morris College Sumter, South Carolina. He was a member of the Bethune Lions Club. Eddie was an educator and retired from the Kershaw County School District.

He leaves to cherish fond and precious memories: his wife of 43 years, Louberta Jackson Mumford; sons, Derrick Ponds, Jefferson, SC, Damion (Genene) Fields. Irmo, SC, Eddie L. Mumford Jr. of the home, SFC Everett (Felicia) Mumford, Camden, SC and SFC Kerston (Brittney) Mumford, Lugoff, SC; grandchildren, Kimberly, Braylen, Daejah, Austin, Trindy, Kamryn, Aiden and Kinsley; great grandchildren, Kiser, Kenzly and Kali; loving sister, Linda M. (Leroy) Harrington, Chesterfield, SC; a host of sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

In addition to his parents, Eddie was preceded in death by, six sisters, Vera M. Pugh, Lera Mumford, Mable M. Byrd, Bobbie M. Hough, Christine M. Cole, Earnestine M. Drake; four brothers, Cornell Mumford, Legrand Mumford, Jerry Mumford and David Mumford.
