

Lord I Have Done What You Asked Me To Do

I was a loving daughter, loving sister, loving aunt, definitely a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and a loving friend.

Lord, I've done what you asked me to do. You told me to love everybody and you told me to treat everybody right and I done that too.

Lord you saw my body getting tired, I didn't want to go....

My sister saw it too, she bent down and whispered in my ear and told me "It's okay, go be with the Lord you will get a chance to see mama, daddy, sister and your brothers. I'm okay I don't want you suffering anymore. I love you, we had good times together. You had a good life. You fought a good fight."

You have done what the Lord have asked you to do.

*Lord I have done what you asked me to do.....
Martha*
