

Floral Attendants Casket Attendants
Deaconess Family and Friends

Acknowledgement

*We the family of the late Burnice Sylvester Bittle, sincerely appreciates the many deeds of kindness shown and the words of comfort during this period of bereavement.
May God forever bless and keep you all in His tender care.*

Do all things decently and in order.

Chesterfield · Cheraw · Pageland, SC
www.flemmingfunerals.com

Celebration of Life For Mr. Burnice Sylvester Bittle

Thursday, December 30, 2021
Eleven o'clock in the morning
Northeast Seventh-Day Church
827 Tom Hunter Road
Charlotte, North Carolina 28213
Pastor Evan Willis

Order of Service

Piano Prelude	Church Musician
Processional	Clergy and Family
Solo	Sister Rachel A. Hamdan
Scripture Readings: Old Testament, Psalms 64:1-5 New Testament, I Thessalonians 4:15-18	Rev. Camalah Bittle Pastor Ryan Johnson
Prayer	Elder Raphael Boyd
Reflections (Three minutes please)	Brother Tyrone Michael Elder Robert Johnson Burise Bittle, Jr.
Poem	“ One at Rest ” Gabrielle McBride Small
Solo	Sister Rachel A. Hamdan
Words of Comfort	Pastor Ezra Mendinghall Asheville Seven Day Adventist Church, Asheville, NC
Committal Rites
The Funeral Director’s Brief
The Recessional

Service of Committal and Interment
National Cemetery, Salisbury, North Carolina

One at Rest

Think of me as one at rest,
For me, you should not weep
I have no pain no troubled thoughts
For I am just asleep

The living thinking me that was,
Is now forever still
And life goes on without me now,
As time forever will.

If your heart is heavy now
Because I’ve gone away
Dwell not long upon it my friend
For none of us can stay

Those of you who like me,
I sincerely thank you all
And those of you who loved me,
I thank you MOST of all.

And in my fleeting lifespan,
As time went rushing by
I found some time to hesitate,
To laugh, to love, and to cry

Matters it now if time began
If time will ever cease?
I was HERE, I used it all,
And now I am at peace.

Reading by: Gabrielle McBride Small / Author: Anon

Obituary
Mr. Burnice Sylvester Bittle

Burnice Sylvester Bittle was born on May 26, 1938, in Chesterfield County, South Carolina. He departed this life on Sunday, December 26, 2021. Burnice was the beloved son of the late Eugene and Allie Lee Bittle.

Throughout his primary years, Burnice attended the public school system of Chesterfield, South Carolina. Following high school he served as a Military Police, foreign and domestic, for three years, including a one-year tour of duty in Korea.

Burnice studied Business and Electronics after leaving the military where he built a small television set before his completion of the course. He later worked for the Swift Meat Packaging Company where he received the opportunity to train for the U.S. Department of Agriculture’s Food Safety Inspection Service. Burnice was one of the few African Americans, during the 1960s, to serve as a Federal Inspector. He retired this position after thirty-two years of service.

For several more years Burnice worked in an industrial corporation as a Site Manager with Cronatron Welding Systems, Inc. He spent his remaining years working for the Lord as the Head Deacon at the Northeast Seventh-Day Church in Charlotte, North Carolina.

In addition to his parents, Burnice was preceded in death by his dear sister, Doris Cummings, and four brothers, David Bittle, Burise Bittle Sr., Thurmond Bittle, and Lester Bittle.

Those Left to Cherish the Fond Memories are:
The love of his life Margie Michelle Bittle from their 27 years of marriage; his sons, Deago Antonio Bittle, Kenneth (Larissa) McBride, Brian (Kela) McBride; daughters, Rachel (Ali) Hamdan, Lanetta (Kennedy Sr.) White, and Jennifer (Nathaniel) Shadding; two sisters, Sandra (James) McQueen, Brenda Kennedy; two brothers, Ralph (Teresa) Bittle, Kenneth (Camalah) Bittle and a loving sister-in-law Yvonne Bittle. Burnice also leaves a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.