- OBITUARY -

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to breakdown and a time to build up... Ecclesiastes 3: 1-3

OUR BELOVED

Sarah Gladys Ellis

Passed away Friday, May 13, 2022 at her home in Farmville, NC. She was 101 years of age. She was born April 29, 1921 in Pitt County to the late Cherry Gay and Emanuel Shirley.

Sarah Gladys married the late Herman Ellis and resided in Norfolk, VA and Detroit, Mich. for a few years and settled in North Carolina where she lived the remaining of her life.

Sarah Gladys attended the Pitt County Schools. Later in life she was a domestic worker at Colonial Inn. She was a member of the Lewis Chapel Flower Club Usher and a choir member.

Sarah Gladys was well known for her sense of humor, her outgoing personality and her deep love for family and friends. She always had a story to tell or a laugh to share and loved ones could always look forward to a birthday wish. Throughout her life, Sarah Gladys enjoyed gardening, growing beautiful plants and frequently shared cuttings with friends. She loved to sing (quietly).

Sarah Gladys was preceded in death by her daughters, Delores Barrett and Gladys Lolese Ellis, son, Herman Anthony Ellis.

Sarah Gladys is survived by one sister, Jean Reeves of Washington, DC; her daughters, Linda Artis of New York City, Paulette Ellis Dixon, Ann S. Ellis, Janie Edu all of North Carolina and Caroline Bowman of Hampton, VA; son-in-law, Jessie Artis; adopted family, Lena and Linda Green and Cassandra Rush, 11 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, 2 great-great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.
