- OBITUARY -

Blanche Barnes Hopkins

Daughter of the late William Jasper Hunter and the late Bernice Davis (Willie James Davis Jr.), was born on December 4, 1945 in Farmville, NC and departed this life suddenly on June 2, 2108 at Wake Medical Center in Raleigh, NC.

Blanche attended H. B. Suggs in Farmville, NC and attended St. Matthews Church. She worked with A.C. Monk and was employed with Pitt County School System where she retired after 24 years of dedicated service. While with the school system she especially enjoyed working beside Stella Johnson, Linda Morgan and Thomas Joyner Sr. She was an extraordinary and passionate mother who loved all of her family unconditionally. Blanche especially enjoyed spending time with her beloved granddaughter, Ashley. She loved the selfies, laughing and sharing secrets with her Stinky. She worked hard and played harder. Blanche loved to dance and have a good time and would put you out of her house and off her porch all at the same time, "TOOT TOOT BOO BOO." She will be greatly missed.

Blanche was preceded in death by her two sisters, Angeleen Forbes and Linda Hunter and two brothers, Charles Davis and William Hunter.

Blanche leaves to cherish her memories three sons, Charles Antonio Hopkins (Kim) of Greenville, NC, Troy Manwell Hopkins of Farmville, NC, and Thomas Jerome Hopkins (Kesha) of Raleigh, NC; daughter, Cheryl Monique Hopkins of Knightdale, NC; one sister, Joyce Ann Davis and two brothers, Willie James Davis, Jr. and Kelly Pitt all of Farmville, NC, 18 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Blanche also leaves to cherish a very special aunt, Sarah Bell Worrell and one uncle, Otis Barnes of Farmville, NC; best friends, Verdell Langford, Carolyn Bass, Lena Robinson, Brenda Barrett Bottoms, Joannette Dixon, Stella Johnson, Barbara Joyce Hopkins and the late Annie Gold Williams.

I never realized you would be gone so soon. In my mind, I expected to see you at every milestone in my life. I imagined you at my college graduation and wedding. To not have you here is unthinkable, yet here I am. I know you are still with me. I know you will see me walk to get my college degree in a couple months. You're also going to be there as I get ready for my wedding. I realize that you loved me unconditionally. All those snacks you would have behind your door in a bag waiting for me was just an expression of your love. All the times you let me make a mess at your house or go on trips to the store was for so much more than to spoil me. You taught me the gift of giving which is priceless. You always gave your all whenever I needed something. Whenever I needed to talk or cry you were always there. For me, it was never about the gifts or anything you've ever given. I loved you from the start. Through the ups and downs. We always loved through the confusion, pain, sick nights, and long days. You are my best friend. We had each other through all the battles of your life. Now, you have my back through all the battles in my life. I know you are there to watch over me.

XOXO "YOUR STINKY"
