

- ORDER OF SERVICE -

PROCESSIONAL.....Ministers & Family

OPENING HYMN.....Deacon James Dildy

- Scriptural Reading -

PRAYER OF COMFORT

SOLO.....Deacon James Dildy

REMARKS.....Family & Friends

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS/OBITUARY

SOLO.....Deacon James Dildy

EULOGY.....Apostle William Harper, Jr.

MORTICIAN'S BRIEF.....Hornes Funeral Home

RECESSIONAL

- INTERMENT -
Baltimore, Maryland

- OBITUARY -

Willis Earl Whitfield

was born on February 9, 1939 to the late Addie and Bryant Whitfield, Sr.

Fondly called "Lil Bud", by family and friends, he grew up in Pitt County and attended the area schools. After school, Willis relocated to Connecticut where he worked at Consolidated Diesel, from which he retired. After retirement in Connecticut, Willis moved back to North Carolina and settled in Fayetteville. In Fayetteville he worked on the Fort Bragg Base as a welder.

Lil Bud enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, and found relaxation in watching old westerns, football and wrestling on TV. He will be truly missed by all who knew him.

Lil Bud was the baby of his family and the last of his siblings. Along with his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, Bryant Whitfield, Jr. and sisters, Emma Mae Atkinson, Clara Bell Speight and Maude Watson.

Left to cherish his memories is his wife, Mrs. Arlene Whitfield; daughters, Charline Whitfield and Thaon McBride; sons, Earl Whitfield and William McBride; grandchildren, Monique Arjune, Ebony Whitfield and Monica Winfield and a host of step-children, step-grandchildren, nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.