

To My Aunt

*We share so many memories,
Things only we know.*

*You have added laughter to my heart,
And love and blessings to my soul.
You have touched my life in many ways,
By being the wonderful Aunt you are,
Know you are very dear to my heart,
And one of my favorite persons, by far.
Going to miss you Aunt Sate

- Obituary -

"SMILE, DON'T WEEP"

*My body said I was tired and needed some rest.
So the Lord heard my call and did what was best.*

I've had my share of love, laughter and pain.

I'm gone for now and I'm not alone,

My Lord just put me to sleep and took me home.

Sadie Baker Dunbar

was called home to be with the Lord, September 23, 2018, after a series of illnesses. Sadie was born October 6, 1947 in Pitt County to the late Jesse and Bettie Baker.

She attended Greene County Schools and was employed by Pitt Memorial Hospital for 30 years.

Sadie was a faithful member of Holy Temple Church of Deliverance, where she served faithfully until her health failed. She was a loving mother who loved her church family and all the people she came in contact with. Sadie was full of wisdom, knowledge and had a great memory. She was also a resident of Stanford, CT for many years.

Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by a sister, Sylvia Gray.

Sadie leaves behind to cherish her memories a son, Charles L. Dunbar of Greenville, NC; daughter, RoShonda Dunbar of Walstonburg, NC; grandson, Kelonta Dunbar of Walstonburg, NC; two god-daughters, Sheriden Jones and Naviyah Norwood; four sisters, Shirley Lewis and Catherine Jones of Walstonburg, NC, Mozell Green of Wilson, NC and Wanda Baker of Greenville, NC; four brothers, Joey Baker of Greenville, NC, Jerry Baker (Ruth) of Greenville, NC, Terry Baker of Walstonburg, NC, and Jesse Baker II (Thelma) of Wilson, NC, along with five nieces, two great-nieces, three nephews, one great-nephew; two special cousins, Mamie Ellis of Ayden and Gloria Speight of Walstonburg, NC and a host of other relatives and friends.
