- Obituary -

RAYMOND NELSON HORNE

Was born on May 15, 1943 in the community of Greene County to the late Raymond and Cherry Mae Horne.

Fondly known as "Mose", he attended the area schools in Greene County. As a young adult, Mose left North Carolina and made his home in the (Big Apple) of New York City. There he worked at Forham University for forty plus years. Missing his southern roots, he decided to relocate back to North Carolina, settling in Farmville.

Mose loved spending time with his family, cooking on the grill (where he bragged about his famous barbecue chicken sauce) and listening to old gospel music. Mose had a way of telling stories that would leave you laughing for days. God blessed Mose with a very sweet heart and a generous spirit. He will be truly missed by all who knew him.

Mose leaves cherished memories with his wife of 51 years, Shelva Dean Horne; sons, Jerry Lamont Horne of Farmville, NC and Ricky Bernard Horne of Bronx, NY; daughters, Rhonda Denise Horne of Bronx, NY, Sherita Faye Best of Bronx, NY and Brenda Sue Tutton of New Rochelle, NY; eleven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; brothers, Willie (Denise) Horne of Farmville, NC, Amos (Emma) Horne of Greenville, NC, and Billy Horne of New Haven, CT; sisters, Elma Carmen of Farmville, NC, Clemetine Best, Hazel Delois White and Ada Mae Horne all of Charlotte, NC; two special sisters-in-law, (whom Mose loved as sisters), Myrtle Tutton and Geraldine Hardy; brother-in-law, John Thomas Best, and a host nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
