The family acknowledges with deep appreciation and sincere thanks for the kind expressions of sympathy, prayers, love and concern shown during the loss of our loved one.
May God continue to bless each of you.

She went away so suddenly, we never said goodbye,
God always knows best, we always wonder why.
Think of her as the same, we say She's not dead
She's just away.

Esther Ree Waller was called home by her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ Wednesday, February 6, 2019 at St. Barnabus Hospital in Bronx, NY. Esther was born to the late Junious and Josephine Hart Waller on November 13, 1934 in Bell Arthur, N.C.

Esther was home schooled some by her name sake Esther Ree Hart who was her aunt. She went to the area schools, H.B Suggs in Farmville, NC and Craven County School in Vanceboro, N.C. She took a course in social work in the Bronx, NY. Esther worked in various jobs from house keeping to working in restaurants. She was a great cook, Caribbean foods was her best. She was the cook in the family. She would make 50 biscuits just for family breakfast alone. She had such a great sense of humor and kept you laughing in stitches. She was a real character. She will be greatly missed by those who knew and loved her.

Esther was preceded in death by thirteen sibling, eight brothers, Marvin, Clarence, Harry, Lubie, Garland, Macon (Sombo) James (Gump) and Tony (TJ); five sisters, Maggie Lee, Gladys Ruth, Carrie Speight, Mae Evelyn (Sweet Pea) and Betty Jo.

Esther leaves to cherish her precious memories a son, Lorenzo Waller (August Faith) of Farmville, NC; a daughter, Daphane Noel of Bronx, NY; one granddaughter, Cameron Josephine who was the apple of her eye; one grandson, Malik Gorham of Topeka, Kansas; three goddaughters, Betty Moya of Bronx, NY, Gail Martin of Bronx, NY; one sister, Margaret Ann Freeman of Farmville, NC; three sisters-in-law, Johnnie Mae Waller of SC, Addie Waller of Farmville, NC and Levern Waller of Vanceboro, N.C. A host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
