

In loving memory of

Cassandra Renee' Jones

3rd June 1977 - 15th April 2019

Monday 22nd, April 2019

At 1:00 pm

Mt. Moriah Community Church

4329 Anderson Avenue

Farmville, NC 27828

Apostle Aaron B. McNair, Sr. ~ Officiating

PALL BEARERS & FLORAL BEARERS
FAMILY & FRIENDS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

THE FAMILY WOULD LIKE TO ACKNOWLEDGE WITH GREAT APPRECIATION THE GRATITUDE AND HEARTFELT KINDNESS SHOWN BY EACH OF YOU IN HELPING TO EASE THE PAIN OF SORROW AT THE PASSING OF OUR LOVED ONE. IT IS OUR PRAYER THAT GOD WILL SHOWER HIS RICHEST BLESSING UPON YOU ALL.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES ENTRUSTED TO:
HORNES FUNERAL HOME
3865 S. MAIN ST. FARMVILLE, NC
252-753-0038

The Order of Service

Processional-----Clergy & Family

Musical Selection-----Mt. Moriah Community Church Choir

Scripture Readings

    Old Testament-----Elder Evangeline Tyson

    New Testament-----Minister Geneva Melvin

Prayer of Comfort-----Elder Melvin Green

Musical Selection-----Mt. Moriah Community Church Choir

Remarks (2 Minutes) -----Family & Friends

Solo-----Mother JoAnn Ward

Acknowledgements & Obituary-----Sis. Rosie Wooten

Musical Selection-----Mt. Moriah Community Choir

Eulogy-----Apostle Aaron B. McNair, Sr

Mortician Brief's-----Hornes Funeral Home

Recessional

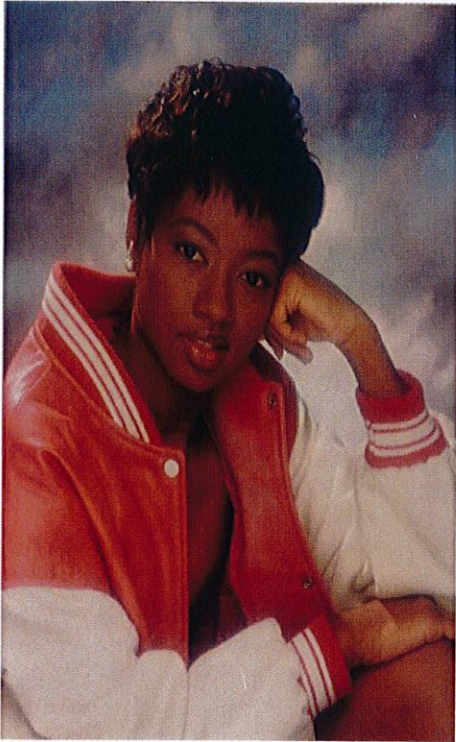

The Final Glimpse
(Please take no photos, only Kishonda Jones)

INTERMENT
Crestlawn Memorial Gardens
Farmville, NC

The Obituary

Cassandra Renee' Jones was born on June 3rd, 1977 in Pitt County to Sharon Jones and Eddie (Catfish) Bynum. S departed this life on Monday April 15, 2019.

Cassandra graduated from Farmville Central High School in 1995, she continued her education by attending Pitt Community College and transfer to East Carolina University. She worked there in the cafeteria on campus.

Cassandra very active in school; besides her academic success she was a cheerleader, track and all out sports person.

She loved her children and her grand babies. She was very proud of her family. Whenever she was around them it brought her joy and excitement. She also loved her dad. When she was small, he would clap his hand together toward her and she would say "stop my daddy" this would make his day. To this day she continued to make his day. She also loved her mom; she would call on her mom anytime day or night and she will say I love you mom and her mom would say to her I love you baby girl. Cassandra knew no strangers and befriended everyone. Cassandra was easy to love and quick to love everyone. Her family and friends truly enjoyed her company, smile and laughter.

Cassandra was a joyful person that liked to have fun and loved to laugh until she should shake all over.

Cassandra was a member of the Mt. Moriah Community Church under the leadership of Apostle Aaron McNair, Sr. It's under this ministry where she acknowledged her life's struggles and that God could help her thereby confessing and receiving Christ into her life trusting Him to help her through all of her struggles one day at a time.

Cassandra Renee Jones leaves to cherish her memories her loving mother Sharon Artis of Farmville, NC; her father Eddie Bynum of Farmville, NC; a friend Jeffrey Sutton of Kinston, NC; three daughters – Briana Jones of Greenville, NC, Tamisa Sutton of Kinston, NC and Jahniya Sutton of Farmville, NC; three sons – Jeffrey Sutton Jr. of Kinston, NC, Jeremiah Sutton of Hawaii and Jesaun Sutton of Farmville, NC; one sister – Karon Worsley (Jerome) of Greenville, NC; two brothers – Marvin Jones (Melissa) and Nathan Williams (Nicole) both of Greenville, NC; three grandchildren – Karson, Niland and Prince; two uncles – John Jones (Patricia) and John Bynum; ten aunts – Ruby Corbett, Verna Johnson, Verelean Vines (David), Annie Cooper, Beulah Jones, Mary Jones, Renta Jordan, Katie Dickinson (Bernard), Esther Ree, Inez Williams and a host of nieces - Jakia, Tashada, Keyada, Zamareya, Zykereya and Romeka; nephew Deonte (DJ), cousins and friends.