

Smile

You can shed tears that she is gone,
Or you can smile because she lived,
You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back,
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that you shared,
You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on,
You can cry and close your mind,
be empty and turn your back,
Or you can do what she would want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

WILLIE SANDRA FRIZZELLE COWARD (PUDDEN)

Was born in Pitt County, North Carolina on August 2, 1951 to the late Matthew Carr and Mamie Ruth Frizzelle. She was the wife of the late Jack Coward. She was predeceased by one son, Robert Belcher Jr. and three of her siblings, Robert Frizzelle, Ora Flynn and Judy Lowery. She went home to be with the Lord on May 27, 2019.

PUDDEN attended schools in Pitt County and was later employed as a seasonal worker for the J.P. Taylor Tobacco Company. She was also a Caretaker and Housekeeper for several families in the town of Ayden. She enjoyed caring for children and families the most because it gave her the opportunity to work in the community that she loved.

PUDDEN was a faithful member of Lewis Chapel Church and she served on the Home Mission Committee until her health started to decline.

PUDDEN'S hobbies included playing bingo, crossword puzzles, and watching the Investigation Discovery channel on TV because she loved trying to solve the mystery before the criminal was revealed.

PUDDEN is survived by her daughters, Keshia (David) Speight and Joy Blow and two sons, Ali Harris and Cody Harris; four siblings, Ruth Bernice Frizzelle-Talton (Ike), Earl Frizzelle, Milton Frizzelle, and Cynthia Mabry; five grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
