- Obituary -

- JOHN A. BYNUM, JR. -

Of Farmville, NC went home to the Lord on Friday, June 28 at Pruitt Health Nursing Home in Farmville, NC. John was born on January 28, 1921 in Pinetops (Edgecombe County, NC) until he was around 14 years old and then his family moved closer to Farmville. He is the son of the late John H. Bynum and Lena Williams Bynum. He lived to be 98 years old and was preceded in death by his wife, Evella Wooten Bynum on Feb. 6, 2004, his son, John A. Bynum III, and his daughter, Fredelia Francine Smith.

The nucleus of his family growing up together were:

- Brothers (all deceased): Andrew Bynum, Robert (aka Fat) Bynum, Herbert Bynum
- Sisters (all deceased): Estelle Bynum, Effie Bynum, and Nina Bynum Jordan
- Half Brother: Eddie Lee Bynum (living)
- Step Brothers: Morris Phillips, Clarence Phillips, George Phillips (all deceased)
- Step Sisters: Esther Ree Dixon (deceased) and Inez Turnage of Flint, Michigan

John A. Bynum, Jr. grew up with a strong mentality of hard work and stressed the importance of education to his children and especially his grandchildren. He was an active member and Deacon at Macedonia Baptist Church for numerous years, and never missed a Sunday to hear the Word of God.

He is survived by his son-in-law, James E. Smith of Farmville, NC; his grandson, James E. Smith, Jr. (Lea) of Aiken, SC; his granddaughter, Jocelyn F. Greenidge (Ryan) of Upper Marlboro, MD. As well as three great-granddaughters, (Niobi Smith, Gabrielle Smith, and Linda Greenidge). Also among those whom mourn his loss are his brother, Eddie Lee Bynum, his sister-in-law, Thelma Hester, his cousins, Ray Bynum, Claudette Wooten, Charles Vines, Lyman Ward and a host of other relatives and friends.
