

“DON’T”
*Spend too much time mourning
 Tears are for the sad,
 I left to be with Jesus
 And this should make you glad.*

“DON’T”
*Waste your hours in grieving
 No need to feel distressed,
 I’m tired of life’s frustrations
 And I had to get some rest.*

“DON’T”
*Lose the love I gave you;
 Feed it with care,
 Grow it with devotion
 And spread it everywhere.*

“DON’T”
*Fret because my leaving
 Came in such a way,
 We’ll have another meeting
 In God’s Eternal Day.*

- Obituary -

Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God and believe also in me. In my fathers house are many mansions if it were not so I wouldn't have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go to prepare a place for you I will come again and receive you into myself that where I am you may be also.

- IRVIN CROWDER, 58 -

Of Farmville, NC, passed away on October 24, 2019. He was born in Greene County, NC on February 20, 1961. He attended Greene Central High School in Snow Hill, NC, and went on to have a long career in construction, heating and air including work with Spolman Maryland HVAC.

IRVIN enjoyed his work, playing cards, wearing the latest fashion, cars, and baking. He loved to cook, and spent hours preparing cakes for birthdays, holidays, and family reunions. His famous Honey Bun cakes were legendary and everyone who tasted them shared that sentiment.

IRVIN lived his life with a light-hearted, warm disposition and always greeted you with a smile. He was a generous, kind man who doted on his children, nieces, and nephews. Irvin was close to his nieces and nephews and grew up with Sharon, James, Charlette, and Andre causing their relationships to be more like siblings. If you needed something and he had it, he did not hesitate to share. That included his time. Irvin was frequently called upon by family and friends to repair a heating unit outside of his work hours; sometimes in the coldest part of January, on a weekend, and even at night. He was always interested in what was going on in your life and made it known that he was proud of his family's accomplishments.

IRVIN is preceded in death by his parents, Raymond Swinson and Minnie Gray Crowder, as well as his brothers, Odell, and Johnnie Edwards, David, Milton, and Donald Crowder, and his sisters, Juanita and Geraldine Edwards.

IRVIN is survived by his life partner, Tamika Nicole Barnes; his four children, Jennifer Crowder Heering (Michael) of Wilson, NC, Shamera Namiece Crowder and Sha'monnee Nicole Crowder of Farmville, NC and Ladreyah Monae Evans of Walstonburg, NC; his three grandchildren, Michelle Herring, Micala Herring, and Cadien Graham; his three brothers, George Crowder (Barbara), Melvin Crowder and Jimmy Crowder (Phyllis); and his five sisters, Adell McMillan, Mildred Davis, Minnie Bynum, Edna Bynum (Jim), and Peggy Crowder, and a host of nieces, nephews, and others relatives.
