

To GOD

Be
The GLORY!

CELEBRATING HIS

Life

Sunrise
DECEMBER 22, 1945

Sunset
AUGUST 4, 2020

Clayborne
HIXON

• Friday, August 14, 2020
• - 1:00PM -

• Hornes Funeral Home
Farmville, NC
Elder Arthur Cherry, Officiating

- Order of Service -

Processional.....Minister & Family
Solo.....Elder Billy Brown
Scriptures.....Rev. J.R. Neil
Prayer of Comfort.....Charles May
Remarks.....Eric Hixon, Son
Solo.....Ava Gorham
Eulogy.....Elder Arthur Cherry
Mortician's Brief.....Hornes Funeral Home

Final Viewing & Recessional

Pall & Floral Bearers.....Family & Friends

- Acknowledgements -

The Family of CLAY HIXON wishes to acknowledge all acts of kindness shown during the passing of our beloved.

May God continue to keep and bless each of you.

- The FAMILY -

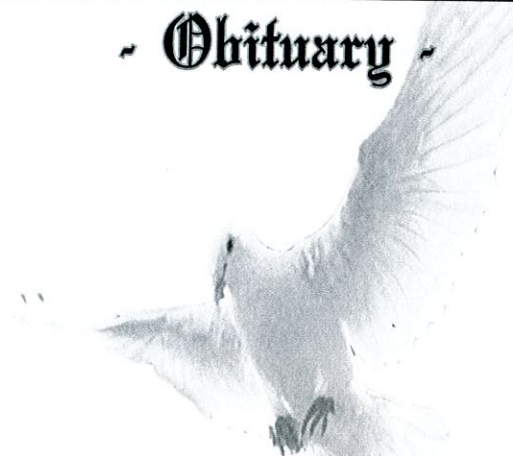

SERVICES ENTRUSTED TO:

Hornes Funeral Home

Farmville, NC • Ph: 252-753-2320

Artistry By: J. Cherry & Harmony • 252-367-1473

- Obituary -

Mr. Clayborne Hixon "ROPE"

Of Walstonburg, NC, was born in Aluchua County on December 22, 1945 to the late John and Theola Hixon. He departed this life on August 4, 2020.

"Rope" as he was affectionately called was a brick mason for 43 years and retired in 2005 because of health issues.

Rope is survived by his companion, Minnie; four sons, Clay, Dewayne (Darlene), Eric, and Joshua; two daughters, Barbara and Mikaela; two brothers, James (NY), Thedossus (NJ); four sisters, Geraldine Lee, Diane Ellis, Gloria Baber, Liz Mays all of Florida; his grandkids, Shannon, Mario, Tori, Jasmine, Kolby, DeLayne, Cameron, and Reginald; great-grands; Sha'Keen, Remi, Omari, Kamari; a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

Special friends Columbs Edwards, Earl Jones, and Jimmy Langly. Special thanks to Sarah Hixon and Florine Cherry, the Hospice Crew, Crystal Desny, Heather, Leslee, Angie, Estelle Wallace, Earl Jones, Derrick Jones, and a host of other friends.