

- Order of Service -

Rev. Glasco Mercer, Presiding

Processional Ministers & Family
Selection
- Scriptural Reading -
Old Testament
New Testament
Prayer of Comfort
Remarks (2 minutes please)
TributeDinita McCloud-Mercer
Acknowledgements/ObituaryRead Silently
SelectionThey Got The Word
EulogyRev. Richard Mercer
——————————————————————————————————————
Mortician's Brief

Final Viewing & Recessional

- INETERMENT -Sunset Memorial Park Farmville, NC

Linda Faye McCloud was born to the late Minnie Mae Taylor-McCloud on August 31, 1959 in Farmville, NC. She departed this life on Friday, October 30, 2020.

aye was a sweet person who told you what was on her mind.

Fause was preceded in death by her life partner of 22 years, the late Lester D. Battle, who called her "Poo Chop"; her sisters, Eula Mae McCloud and Susan Marie McCloud; her brothers, Dennis Ray McCloud and Kenneth Ray Johnson.

-aue leaves to cherish her memories: her children, Linda Dinita (Trustee Leroy Alan) McCloud-Mercer, Benita Michelle Simms, Latoya Renee (Maurice) Smith, Mario Devon McCloud, Travanta Jovon McCloud, Melvin Earl McCloud, Michael Davon McCloud; godchildren, La'hanah Parice Arties, Amy Michelle Coward, Latoya Shyon Lane-Melton; sisters, Beula Jean (Robert) Smith, Doris Kay Joyner, Betty Sue Pitt, Dorthel Barfield; brothers, Robert Lee McCloud, and Moses Streeter; nieces, Ashley Tyson, Crystal Barrett, Nicole Smith, Tiffany Smith, Tiffany Midget; nephews, Da'Corrie Gay, Robby McCloud, Robert Smith, Jr., Christian Smith, and a host of other relatives and friends.