

I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me*

*I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play*

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day*

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy

*A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow*

*My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch*

*If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief*

*Lift up your heart, rejoice with me, God wanted me now,
He set me free.*

Sweet Lady

My Sweet Lady you left us here without a warning. We are going to miss you so much our Sweet Lady. You was the turn up Queen everywhere you went. We love you so much. We are going to miss you everyday and every minute of the day. You will always be our sunshine after the rain. We love you, our Sweet Lad. We love you Grandma.

A Life Well Lived

Mary Delores Hines Streeter, the daughter of the late James Richard and Martha Hines, was born June 10, 1945 in Farmville, NC. She departed her life suddenly on February 1, 2021 and though it was unexpected to us it was not unexpected to God.

She was preceded in death by two brothers, Melvin Hines, and Barney Hines.

Mary attended H.B. Suggs High School and later worked for many years as a seamstress. She found a church at Moyes Chapel Free Will Baptist Church.

"Lores", as she was lovingly called, loved her family and spending time with them was a priority. And her food was always delicious, she was the best cook ever. She lived life to the fullest and was the life of the party.

We are all going to miss her presence in our lives, especially her big personality. We're also individually grateful to have spent so much time with her because we know she will live on through each of us.

Mary leaves to cherish her precious memory: Her husband, Clarence Streeter, of the home. Three daughters, Zephaline Wood of Hookerton, NC, Coty Hines of Baltimore, Md; and Sharice (Corey) Speight of Hookerton, NC. One son; Thad (Phyllis) Langley of Farmville, NC. Four sisters; Barbara Barnes, Phyllis (Vernon) Davis, Peggy Taylor of Baltimore, Md. and Peggy Jean Barrett of Farmville, NC. One brother, Kenneth (Renida) Hines of Baltimore, Md. Six sisters in law, 2 brothers in law, 8 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren, 4 great great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
