Obituary

On Tuesday, August 2, 2022, Mrs. Delsie Hancock transitioned into eternal rest at McLeod Loris Hospital.

Dessa, as she was affectionally known, was the daughter of the late Ms. Patience Hemingway. She was born on October 18, 1930. She was united in marriage to the late Mr. Roosevelt Hancock.

Dessa worked as a housekeeper for many years and helped raised many children during that time. She also worked many years at the Coffee Shop in Loris until her retirement. She was well-known for her cooking, baking, and gardening until her health failed. If you ever visited her home, you would find her in the kitchen cooking delicious meals, baking cakes, canning just about everything or cleaning while being assisted by her sister Verneva.

In addition to her mother and husband, Delsie was preceded in death by her sisters: Orene Green, Irene Hemingway, Carlene Bellamy and Mary Winston; Brothers: Glennie Hemingway, Willie "RB" Hemingway and M. B. Hemingway; a nephew that was raised in the home, Mike Hemingway.

She leaves to cherish many fond memories: two sisters, Gracie H. Jackson and Verneva Hemingway of Green Acres, NC; nieces and nephews that was raised in the home: Mary Hemingway, Derrick Hemingway, Christopher (Roshetta) Hemingway, Nerena Gause and Derriel Hemingway, whom she called "My Babies;" a stepdaughter, Linda Sellers, Cheraw, SC; extended family members: Jeremy Prince, David Prince, Jeanie Jones, Charlie Oakley, Belinda Oakley, John Oakley, Jeff Hardee, Kim Hardee, and Stacy Hardee; brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Mr. & Mrs. Ted Bradley; special godsons: Ernest Beaty, Donzel Melvin and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me for I am free
I'm following the path God has for me.
I took His hands when I heard the call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Task left undone must stay that way
I've found that peace at the close of the day

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seems all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undo grief
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me free.
Humbly Submitted - The Family
