

~ If Tears Could Build a Stairway ~

*We think about you always,
We talk about you still,
You have never been forgotten
And you never will.
We hold you close within our hearts
And there you remain,
To walk and guide us through our lives,
Until we meet again.*

Love Forever, your sisters Linda and Vernel

~ I Made It Home ~

I just wanted to let you all know that I made it home. The journey wasn't an easy one, but it didn't take too long.

*Everything is so pretty here, so white, so fresh and new.
I wish that you all could close your eyes and that you could see it too.*

Please try not to be sad for me. Try to understand God is taking care of me.....I'm in the shelter of His hands.

Here there is no sadness, no sorrow, and no pain. Here there is no crying and I'll never hurt again.

Here it is so peaceful when all the angels sing. I really have to go for now.... I've just got to try my wings.

~ Obituary ~

Tyson Elwood Moore, son of the late James Norman Moore and Mildred Mitchell Moore, was born May 4, 1940 in Columbus County, North Carolina. He succumbed to the call of God on Thursday, March 2, 2023, at Moses Cone Hospital, Greensboro, North Carolina.

Elwood grew up in Farmers Union, Clarkton, North Carolina, where he attended elementary school and later graduated from Artesia High School in Hallsboro, North Carolina. He was employed by Columbus County Schools for 39 years, retiring as the Shop Foreman at the Bus Garage.

He was united in holy matrimony to Katie McNeill. For 55 years they resided happily near his homeplace in Farmers Union until his demise.

Elwood leaves to cherish fond memories, his loving wife, Katie; sisters, Susie V. Sumpter of Whiteville, NC and Linda E. Moore of Clarkton, NC; sister-in-law, Rosemary McNeill-Monroe (Ronald) of Fayetteville, NC; nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

In addition to his parents, Elwood was preceded in death by his daughter, Sandra Solomon; granddaughter, Charkesha Solomon; brother, James Norman Moore, Jr.; and sister, Miriam Spaulding.

~ If Tears Could Build a Stairway ~

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories a lane,
We would walk right up to heaven
To bring you home again.*

*No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.*

*Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears will flow
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know.*

*When we are sad or lonely,
And everything goes wrong,
We seem to hear you whisper,
"Cheer up and carry on!"*

*Each time we look at your pictures.
You seem to smile and say,
"Don't cry I'm only sleeping, We'll meet again someday."*

Your loving wife, Katie
