Barbara Ann Smith Piggott

November 2, 1955 - March 6, 2023

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith."

-II Timothy 4:7

On March 6, 2023, our Heavenly Father with loving mercy discharged an angel to call Barbara Ann Smith Piggott to rest. Barbara was born to the late, Katie Floyd Smith and Frank Jefferson, both of Whiteville, NC.

Previously departed loved ones include her husband Benjamin Piggott and son Benjamin Piggott, Jr., four sisters, and three brothers.

Barbara was a born-again believer and began her Christian walk at First Saint Paul Missionary Baptist Church, Whiteville, NC. She loved her church family dearly and enjoyed working for the Lord.

She leaves to cherish her memories, Jayden and Jarell Antone, of the home; Carrie Graham of Clarkton, NC; Essie Stone Brummitt of Waldorf, MD; Nellie Smith Robinson (Clarence) of Forestville, MD; Betty Ann Jefferies, and Eloise Bright of Whiteville, NC; Nathaniel Smith of Clarkton, NC; and James Russell of Whiteville, NC.

If you asked for something, she would try her best to get it for you. She was a great Lady; she was nice, and she lived a great life; and I love her. I will miss her, and I will never forget her.

-Jarell Antone

If roses grow in heaven, Lord please pick a bunch for my mother and tell her they're from us. Tell her we love her and miss her; and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for a while.

Because remembering her is easy, we do it every day, but there's an ache within our hearts, that will never go away.

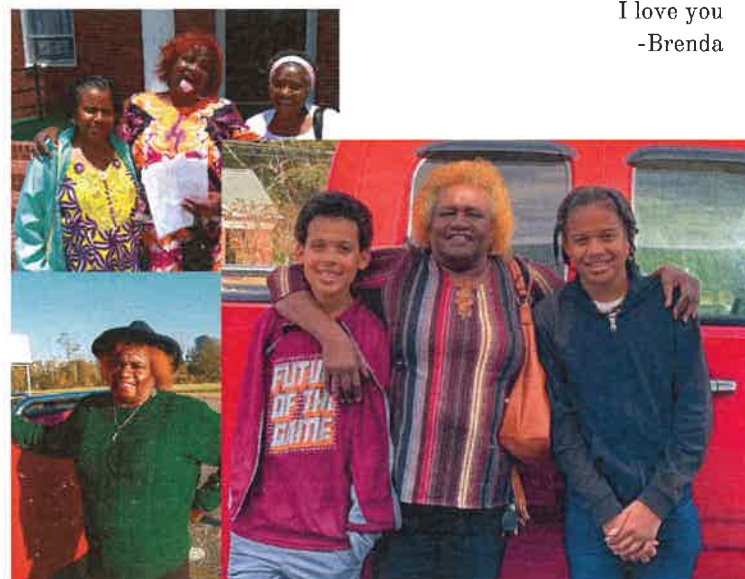

We love you "forever"

-Jayden & Jarell Antone

I picked up my pen a million times, but I still don't know where to begin. I didn't get to say goodbye, but you knew I loved you and that's no lie. I always said you had nine lives, you survived so much, and I knew it wasn't just luck. I remember when I was sick in the hospital you came every day. You've left me numb, I am saddened that death took you away, but God said in all things, we shall give thanks. So, thank you for being my Auntie

I love you

-Brenda
