I Said a Prayer for You

*I said a prayer for you today, and know God must have heard
I felt the answer in my heart, although He spoke no word.
I didn't ask for wealth or fame (I knew you wouldn't mind)
I asked Him to send treasures of a far more lasting kind!
I asked that He'd be near you at the start of each new day
To grant you health and blessings and friends to share your way!
I asked for happiness for you, in all things great and small,
But it was for His loving care, I prayed the most of all!*

Acknowledgment

Throughout the illness and homegoing of our loved one, you have all exemplified the greatest love. Words are not sufficient to thank you for your love, prayers, and acts of kindness. Please know that we thank you from the depths of our heart. Your thoughtfulness will be a source of comfort to us in the days to come. It is our prayer that God will continue to shower you with His blessings.

Obituary

Frank Milton Logan was born December 25, 1935 in Whiteville, North Carolina to Charlie Logan and Edna Lennon Logan.

Frank graduated from Central High School where he was an outstanding athlete. As a result, he played in the Negro League and became a coach with the Whiteville Little League Baseball Organization. He attended Isoderma Technical School to begin his career in brick masonry. He was employed by J. W. Cook of Whiteville for many years and taught classes at Southeastern Community College.

He joined Friendship Missionary Baptist Church at an early age and served faithfully in many capacities, including member of the Trustee Board and Usher Board. He was instrumental in helping the Men's Class start the Sunday School Scholarship.

Frank married the love of his life, Elizabeth McIntyre, on February 14, 1961. This union was blessed with six children.

Being the avid fisherman that he was, Frank shared his "catch" with family and friends of the community. He was an active community person, participating in politics and athletic events and support groups.

On the morning of Thursday, May 3, 2018, at his home, Frank was summoned and transitioned to his eternal resting place. He leaves to cherish his memory, his loving and devoted wife, Elizabeth; twin daughters, Sharolyn Logan of Raleigh, North Carolina and Carolyn Logan-King (Clayborn) of Chesterfield, Virginia; sons, Frank L. Logan (Madeline) of Whiteville, North Carolina, Kenneth E. Logan (Cheryl) of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, James A. Logan of Raleigh, North Carolina, Anthony S. Logan of the home, Winfred D. Baldwin (Renee) of Prince George, Virginia, and Brian Payne (Robin) of Suffolk, Virginia; brother, Fleming Pridgen of Whiteville, North Carolina; grandchildren; great-grandchildren, sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and dear friends.

In addition to his parents, Frank was preceded in death by his brothers, Charles Logan, Jr., James T. Logan, Henry Logan, and Clarence "Toad" Logan; and sisters, Sadie Mae Watts and Shulette Moore.
