Acknowledgment

The entire Clarida family sincerely thanks all of you for your prayers, comfort, love, and support. Your many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy have been a blessing. A special thanks to Greater Tabernacle, Pastor Moore, the Zion Plain Missionary Baptist Church, and Pastor Reed for your generous support. May the Lord Jesus Christ bless and keep you!

TO GOD BE THE GLORY!

We give thanks and glory to God, our Healer, our Redeemer, our Saviour, and our Comforter. Thank you Jesus, for allowing us to bring our sister back home so we could spend quality time with her and make her final days joyful. They were priceless and unforgettable!

Obituary

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 CORINTHIANS 5:1

Mary Magolene Clarida Teebenny departed this life Monday, May 14, 2018, at Columbus Regional Healthcare System, Whiteville, North Carolina. She is now resting eternally in the heavens with Jesus Christ, for to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Therefore, today we celebrate her life!

Magolene was born December 15, 1945 in Nakina, North Carolina to James Clif (aka J.C.) and Allane Smith Clarida. She was educated in the Columbus County Public Schools and graduated from Douglas High School, Tabor City, North Carolina.

Magolene accepted Jesus Christ at an early age and joined the Zion Plain Missionary Baptist Church, Nakina, North Carolina. She remained a faithful member until she relocated to Brooklyn, New York. Later, Magolene joined the Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church, Brooklyn, New York, under the leadership of Pastor Lundy. Her beloved husband, Melvin Teebenny, preceded her in death.

Magolene held several jobs to include the US Postal Service and the Department of Social Services, where she retired.

Magolene loved working with children and ran a licensed daycare center from her home. Her hobbies were gardening and travelling. She loved people and held many fun gatherings with her family and friends. Your concern was her concern, and she offered assistance wherever she could. Our beloved sister, Magolene, is now free from a world of sin, sorrow, and pain. Her family, friends, community, neighbors, and many others will miss her dearly. The special bond and memories she shared will never let us part, because they are now treasures tucked deep within our hearts.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory: sisters, Lucy Clarida and Louise Stroud of Nakina, North Carolina; brothers, Willie Clarida (Dianne) of Nakina, North Carolina and Clifton Clarida of Sierra Vista, Arizona; aunt, Annie B. Clarida; great uncle, Percy Clarida; godsons, Jason James of Tennessee and Donald Edwards of Albany, New York; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
