

A Mothers' Broken Heart

*It's sometimes hard to know
Why some things happen as they do
For so much joy and happiness
Was centered around you*

*It seems so hard to comprehend
That you're no longer here
But all the happy memories
Will help to keep you near*

*My tried heart is broken
And doesn't beat the same
And it breaks a little more
Every time I hear your name*

Love Mom

Missing Our Brother

*A feeling you feel and can't seem to explain;
The feeling of grief and lots of pain.
Our heart aches and constantly long for you;
Never would imagine this day to be true.*

*You left us broken and not knowing what to do;
Tears fill our eyes over the thought of never seeing you.
Here one day and gone the next;
We would give the world just to receive another text.*

*Life goes on, but will never be the same;
Laughing is what we will do at the mention of your name.
Accepting that you're gone is something we have to do;
You will forever be in our hearts and we will always be missing you.*

We Love you; Our Brother's Keeper

From our heart, your sister

Robert Mitchell Hill

Obituary

Robert Mitchell Hill was born February 26, 1970 in Whiteville, NC. He was the only son to the late Elery H. Hill and Stella M. Hill. On July 1, 2018 the Lord gave Rob his wings and called him to his eternal resting place.

He attended Whiteville High School and graduated in 1990. Upon graduation he served for six years in the United States Army as a Field Artillery Specialist. He was a proud veteran that honorably served his country. Rob was a contractor for several construction companies. His natural carpeting skills enabled him to become an outstanding handyman to family and friends.

During Rob's teenage years, he developed the nickname "Base" while hanging out in Pinewood with the Juice Crew. He became a father, brother, uncle, and friend to many due to his impeccable ability to love those whom he came in contact with.

Robert had a big heart for all children. He loved his nieces and nephews, as he would tell all of them, "You know you my favorite". Base had an extraordinary relationship with his grandchildren, who loved calling him "Papa". Being the only brother, he was definitely all his sisters' protector. He enjoyed hanging with family and friends, fishing, watching sports, debating and discussing politics, religion and world events.

He was preceded in death by his wife Cheryl Hall Hill.

Robert leaves to cherish his wonderful memories; a mother Stella Hill of the home; six sisters, Nancy (Will) Stephens of Wake Forest, NC, Gwendolyn (Greg) Owens of Hope Mills, NC, Kathleen Hill of Chadbourn, NC, Theresa Hill of Kannapolis, NC, Janice Nichols and Elizabeth Hill of Clarkton, NC; two step children, William "Jay" Godwin Jr. of South Korea, Rodney (Temika) Godwin of Whiteville, NC; six grandchildren, five aunts, Jean Robinson of Whiteville, NC, Hattie Crayton of Dallas, TX, Arnetha (Joe) Dickerson of Clayton, NC, Marienna Mason of Scotch Plains, NJ, Ceatrice Turner of Tennessee; one uncle, Rudolph Ford of Whiteville, NC; six great-aunts; one great uncle, one great-great aunt, two little brothers Marquis Ford and Juwarn (Dogcatcher) Britt, special neighbor Shondia Hall, and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.
