Psalm 100

*Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.
Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.
Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.
For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.*

The Family Acknowledgment

The family expresses gratitude for all acts of kindness shown during its time of bereavement. Continue to pray for the family, and may God bless you with His eternal love.

Obituary

JAMES SESSIONS was born April 18, 1935 in Georgetown, South Carolina. His life ended August 12, 2018 at McLeod Loris Hospital in Loris, South Carolina.

James attended school in Conway, South Carolina. He also took some classes at Southeastern Community College in Whiteville, North Carolina.

James devoted his entire life to taking care of his family. As a husband, he worked hard for his family. His love for his family and friends will always be remembered.

He joined First Baptist Church of Clarendon, where he was later ordained as Deacon. He served as deacon until his health began to fail.

He was united in holy matrimony to Martha Randall, now deceased. This union was blessed with five children. He and his wife lived. He and his wife lived together for 55 years. He was a loving husband and father.

Left to cherish fond memories are his daughters, Mary Hudgens of Atlanta, Georgia and Lorie Sessions of Clarendon, North Carolina; sons, Lonnie Sessions of Whiteville, North Carolina and Jamie Sessions (Samone) of Fort Riley, Kansas; grandson, Corie A. Sessions (Jennifer) of Hope Mills, North Carolina; 12 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren, special friend, Ladalyon Stackhouse; special family friend, Bobbie Burroughs; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

A son, Harrell Sessions, preceded him in death.
