Obituary

In my Father's house are many mansions if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. John 14: 2-3

Jettie Mae Baldwin Moore, was born March 10, 1933 in Columbus County, North Carolina to the late Wylie and Doreatha Shipman Baldwin. She was called to her heavenly home on Tuesday, December 18, 2018 at Premiere Living Rehabilitation Center, Lake Waccamaw, North Carolina. She was reared in the Welches Creek Community. At an early age she accepted Christ and joined Welches Creek Missionary Baptist Church, Whiteville, North Carolina, where she was a faithful member and dedicated usher. Later in life, she was joined in holy matrimony to Virgil Raymond Moore and moved her membership to Sandy Plain Missionary Baptist Church, Clarkton, North Carolina, where she served too, as a faithful member and usher for many years until her health declined. This union was blessed with six children. Her hobbies included sewing, gardening, and playing the piano in her home. She was a loving, caring, devoted wife, mother, sister, aunt and nurturing grandmother. Her husband Virgil Raymond Moore preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory: Raymond Moore, Winston Salem, North Carolina; Ramona Bradley, Clarkton, North Carolina; William Moore (Phiphine), Winston Salem, North Carolina; Clifton Moore (Marie), High Point, North Carolina; Roland Moore (Wanda), Whiteville, North Carolina; Keith Moore (Gloria), Clarkton, North Carolina. Eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Two sisters: Betty Ann Baldwin, Clarkton, North Carolina and Julia Jenkins, Greensboro, North Carolina. Three brothers: John D. Baldwin, Whiteville, North Carolina; Booker T. Baldwin of Bridgeport, CT and McNeil Baldwin of Raleigh, North Carolina.

"I m Free"

*Don't grieve for me now I'm free,
I'm following the path God has laid
you see;
I took His hand when I heard Him
call,
I turned my back and left it all;
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found the peace at the close of the day.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue
grief;
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee,
God wanted me now,
He set me free.*
