

Sister

You didn't give us no warning that this was our last goodbye, if we would have known we would have never left your side. When we received that call water filled our eyes, we ran and got your baby girl and held her close to our side, explaining to her was the hardest part but know she will be fine. We promise you she will be always good just sleep on my sister we just glad you are out of pain. If love alone could have saved you, you would still be by our sides. In our hearts you hold a place no one else can fill. Sleep on sister sleep on sister again don't worry about a thing. We made a promise to you, Jayonna will be taken care of, so enjoy mom and give her our love tell her we truly miss her and y'all will forever be our ladies.

Obituary

Corshia Renee Wilson, daughter of the late Nathan Pete Wilson and Clara Mae Wilson born on June 24, 1990 in Whiteville, NC. On December 19, 2018, the lord gave Corshia her wings and she reunited with her parents in Heaven.

Corshia graduated from Whiteville High School in 2008 then continued her education at Southeastern Community College. She followed her mother's footsteps by wanting to help others and obtained her Certified Nursing Assistant Certification where she helped others for 10 years but doing hair was her passion.

She gave her life to Christ at an early age and attended Antioch First Born Church of Whiteville, NC.

To know Corshia was to love her, she was the life of the party and always had everyone laughing and slayed for any event. On numerous occasions she made it known but it was obvious that the best part of her life was her daughter aka her mini me. She worked hard to ensure that Jayonna had the best life could offer. She enjoyed the finer things in life and was a fashionista who always slayed with her lashes and heels. She was outspoken and not afraid to tell it just how it was. She grew up being a Quarter girl and representing her neighborhood to the fullest.

Corshia was preceded in death by her parents Nathan and Clara Wilson. Maternal Grandmother: Lucille Moore, Paternal: Grandparents Dorothy (Richard) Wilson Giles and LaVassa Wilson. Also proceeding her in death are Aunts: Dorothy McZeak, Betty Rose Parker, Cleonia Faye Freeman. Uncles: Gary Wilson, Donnie Ray Wilson, and James Oliver.

Left to Cherish her fond memories is her beautiful daughter Jayonna Goodson of the home. Grandfather: Presley Moore of Brunswick, NC. Brothers: Setonius Wilson (Ayanna), Damien Wilson (Tiffany) of Whiteville, NC. Brian Shaw of Bolivia, NC, Leon McMillian of Wilmington, NC and Sean McMillian of Georgia. Aunts: Betty Moore of Brunswick, NC, Timothea Wilson of Whiteville, NC, Shelia Moore-Handrick (Jeff) of Charlotte, NC and Sarah Adams-Abudullah (Muhammad) of Clarkton, NC, Penelope Oliver of Montgomery, Alabama. Uncles: William Wilson of Youngstown, Ohio, John McZeak, Henry Moore, William Moore (Alishia) all of Whiteville, NC, John Moore (Alice), Michael Moore, Levi Moore all of Brunswick, NC, Larry Moore, and Robert Moore of Charlotte, NC. Carvester Moore (Mary) of Stone Mountain, GA. Sister in law Sabra Wilson, stepfather: Charles Burroughs and host of relatives and friends.

Mom

*I still see your face before me
Your voice I long to hear..
I miss and love you dearly,
God knows, I wish, you were here.
Tears fall freely from my eyes,
Like a river, filled with grief.
My only comfort now, is that
From pain, you've found relief.
Missing YOU!*
