A TIME TO DANCE

Today you did the bravest thing, today you set me free, thank you for showing me, the ultimate dignity, I'm sorry that my leaving, has broken your heart, but we knew this day would come, the day we had to part, don't think I did not hear, every last word you said, don't think I did not feel, your hand touch my head, today you set me free, so in Heaven I will be, a place of God's great beauty, no tears or earthly cares, only peace and joy forever, and love beyond compare, and if you trust in Jesus, I can promise this and more, you will get a hug from us, someday on Heaven's golden shore.

Acknowledgment

The family of Deacon Levi Moore, Sr. expresses sincere gratitude for the many kind expressions of sympathy and acts of kindness extended during this difficult time. Your love and support will always be remembered. May God's blessings be yours.

Life's Reflections

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the Heavens" (Ecclesiastes 3:1)

A TIME TO BE BORNDeacon Levi Moore, Sr. was born December 25, 1925 in Rimini, South Carolina to Isaac Moore and Camilla Mitchell Moore.

A TIME TO DIE....He entered into eternal rest on Wednesday, February 6, 2019 at Lower Cape Fear Hospice Angel House in Whiteville, North Carolina.

A TIME TO PLANT...."Preistly," as we called him, was a dedicated employee at Sledge Lumber Mill, then continued his employment at Georgia Pacific as a supervisor until his retirement. Early in life he accepted Christ as his Savior and joined Antioch First Born Holiness Church where he remained an active member until his demise.

A TIME TO BUILD UP....He was united in holy matrimony to Lucille James on December 7, 1947, and 13 children were born from this union. He was preceded in death by his wife and daughters, Dorothy Moore McZeak and Clara Moore Wilson.

A TIME TO LOVE....Deacon Moore leaves to cherish his memory: sons, Levi Moore, Jr. and Michael Moore of the home, John Moore (Alice), William Moore, and Henry Moore of Whiteville, North Carolina, Robert Moore and Larry Moore of Charlotte, North Carolina, and Carvester Moore (Mary) of Stone Mountain, Georgia; daughters, Sarah Adams-Abdullah (Muhammad) of Clarkton, North Carolina, Betty Moore of Whiteville, North Carolina, and Shelia Moore-Hardrick (Jeff) of Charlotte, North Carolina; sister, Mary Benjamin of North Miami, Florida; sister-in-law, Thelma Harris of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; son-in-law, John McZeak of Whiteville, North Carolina; 51 grandchildren, a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

A TIME TO MOURN....He was preceded in death by his siblings, Sarah McCalister, Rosa Ross, Margaret Green, Lillie Wilson, and Henry Moore, Sr.; and two granddaughters, Tamara La'Shay Moore and Corshia Renee Wilson.
