Acknowledgment

We, the family of Carole Williamson, gratefully acknowledge all expressions of kindness and support shown by our many friends during these difficult times. We extend a special thanks to our cousin, Michael Buie, for recording the service. May God continue to bless each of you is our prayer.

A light from our household is gone; a voice we love is still.

A place is vacant in our home, which never can be filled.

'Tis hard to part with one so dear.

Little thought we the time so short.

Farewell, Dear One, your life is passed.

Our love for you will always last.

Lovingly and Humbly Submitted,

Obituary

CAROLE LOUISE WILLIAMSON was born February 10, 1949 to Charlie Jaro Williamson and Louise High Williamson in Columbus County, North Carolina. The second of six children, Carole attended Armour High School, graduating in 1967. She obtained her nursing degree in 1969 from the Riverside Nursing School in Nashville, Tennessee. While working in hospitals, her career took her from Nashville to Denver, Colorado. Back to North Carolina in 1980, she began working at the nursing home in Lake Waccamaw, then to Elizabethtown Nursing Center where she worked from 1981 to 2009.

Carole enjoyed her work and loved her patients and their families. She was generous, kind, and loving. Her heart was tender, and compassion ruled her actions.

During Carole's younger years, the Williamsons were members of the Philadelphia Seventh-day Adventist Church in Council, North Carolina. Her most recent membership was at Victory Seventh-day Adventist Church.

She leaves to cherish her memory: sisters, Patricia Williamson and Shirley Williamson of the home; brothers, Earl Williamson of the home, David Williamson of Bolton, North Carolina, and Harold Williamson (Barbara) of Bethel, North Carolina; nephews, Joel Williamson of Tennessee and Jonathan Williamson of Greensboro, North Carolina; nieces, Tara Johnson (Jai), Susie Johnson, and Lisa Williamson of Tennessee, and Sharnelle Williamson of Bethel, North Carolina; special friend, Ramona Smith; a host of other family members and special friends, too numerous to name.

"She is Gone"

*You can shed tears that she is gone or you can smile because she has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her, or you can be full of the love you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember her and only that she's gone, or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back, or you can do what she'd want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on. David Harkins*
