

Life Is Forever, Death Is a Dream
If we did not go to sleep at night
We'd never awaken to see the light.
And the joy of watching a new day break
Or meeting the dawn by some quiet lake,
Would never be ours unless we slept
While God and all His angels kept,
A vigil through this "little death"
That's over with the morning's breath.
And death, too, is a time of sleeping
For those who died are in God's keeping.
And there's a sunrise for each soul,
For life, not death is God's promised goal.
So trust God's promise and doubt Him never.
For only through death can man live forever!

WORDS OF APPRECIATION

Our hearts have been made to rejoice during the illness and passing of our loved one by the many acts of kindness extended to our family. Your prayers and all expressions of love and sympathy are greatly appreciated. May God's blessings of peace and love continue with you forever.

Special Thanks for 36 years of care to The Premier Living Family.

OBITUARY

Marvadean Spears, daughter of the late, James Sherwood Spears and Mary Elizabeth Smith Spears was born December 24, 1944 in Columbus County, NC. She transitioned into eternal rest on Wednesday August 28, 2019 at Columbus County Hospital, Whiteville, NC.

A longtime resident of Premier Living Lake Waccamaw, NC, originating from The Old Wilmington Road. Marvadean developed a high fever as an infant which turned into poliovirus. At that time her life expectancy was 30 years. But God spared her 74 years, proving he has the last say.

Marvadean was cared for by her loving mother, upon her passing she moved to Premier Living. She made many friends with the occupants and staff. There she gained the mobility she desired and quickly learned to operator her mobile chair thru the halls becoming independent to go and come as she pleased. Never one to be in her room, she was always out and about exploring.

Marvadean enjoyed snacks and cake as we all do. She was known for loving her beads and humming all the theme songs from television shows of the 70's, 80's and 90's.

Preceded in death by her brother James Sherwood Spears, Jr. She leaves to cherish her memory her sisters Linda S. Campbell (Thurman), of Council, NC and Delores S. Jacobs (Will), of Whiteville, NC, one niece, three nephews, and a host of extended friends and family.
