

Miss Me A Little.....When I come to the end of the road

And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in gloom-filled rooms,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little—but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-- but let me go.
For this a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan.
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And busy your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me – but let me go.

Obituary

Leonia Prince Glover, daughter of the late William and Susan Prince, was born May 1, 1939 in Andrews, S. C. After an extended illness she departed this life and transitioned to her Heavenly home on September 20, 2019 at Columbus Regional Healthcare System, Whiteville, N.C.

Leonia attended school in the Oceda Section of Andrews, S. C. and upon integration of schools attended school in Andrews. After relocating to Jersey City, N. J. she continued her education. She earned a GED and nursing certificate for Home Health care.

She was united in Holy Matrimony in December 1980 to John Purcell Glover. They later relocated in Whiteville, N. C. and joined Saint Bethel Missionary Baptist Church in 1999.

She was called into the ministry in 2004. She was loved by all who came in contact with her.

She was preceded in death by her four children: Vernon, Leonard, Kenneth, Jacquelyn and one grandson, Jawarren. She leaves to Cherish her memory her husband, John Purcell Glover; Sisters, Lottie Rutledge and Mary McCallum of Andrews, S.C., Eliza Saunders of Jamaica, N.Y., and Sellisteen Steward of Newark, N. J.; Several grands and greatgrands; one step Sister-in-law, Shirly Evans of Whiteville, and a host of nieces and nephews.
