~ Obituary ~

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith."—II Timothy 4:7

Let it be known, Alene Wilson Bellamy, daughter of the late Olden and Bertha Wilson, was born June 30, 1931 in the Honey Hill-Hallsboro area of Columbus County, North Carolina. She entered eternal rest Tuesday, November 26, 2019, at Columbus Regional Healthcare System.

Alene spent her entire life in the community of Hallsboro. She was employed at Columbus County Hospital (Food Services Department), retiring twice from the hospital. Through her employment she met many people and greeted them with kindhearted words and joyful smiles.

Spiritually, Alene was a member of Mount Hebron AME Zion Church of Hallsboro; later moving her membership to her home church, Second Saint Paul Missionary Baptist Church in the Cherrytown Community.

Alene married John Coleman Bellamy (deceased), and to that union they had eight children. Family members preceding her in death are sons, Johnnie, Lawrence, and Baby Daniel; and daughter, Jacqueline.

Left to cherish her memory are her children, Wilbert Lee Bellamy of the home, Beverly Darnell (Judy) of Norfolk, Virginia, Phyllis Darlene (Donnell) of Hallsboro, North Carolina, and Timothy Ray Bellamy of Greensboro, North Carolina; brother, Vivion Bellamy of Little River, South Carolina; along with a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
