Psalms 23
David, The Book of Psalms (KJV)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

~Obituary~

*I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith: II Timothy 4:7*

Matthew Lee Moore Jr. was born October 8, 1940 to Matthew Moore and Arnettie Wallace Moore in Warsaw, NC. He departed this life on Friday, December 27, 2019 at his home. He attended school in Duplin County, North Carolina.

He lived in Tampa, Florida as a young man and moved to Brooklyn, New York where he met his future wife, Betty Faye Gerald, who he married in 1970. They eventually moved to Betty's native Columbus County, North Carolina.

Matthew was a hardworking man. He worked various jobs in his lifetime. He worked for Waddell paint for several years before he started working at Maisons-sur-Mer where he was employed for 33 years. He was able to enjoy his last years in retirement.

He leaves behind his wife of 50 years Betty Faye Moore; a daughter, Denise Gore of Tabor City, North Carolina; two grandchildren, Alisha Gore of Tabor City, North Carolina and Branon Jones of Charlotte, North Carolina. He is survived by three sisters; Linda Walker of Georgia, Carnell Moore of Jacksonville, North Carolina and Yvonne Moore of Jacksonville, North Carolina, a brother, Levi Moore, of New York, a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by two sisters, Ruby Moore and Doris Moore.
