Psalm 100

Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.

Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

Obituary

Glassco Smith was born January 16, 1950 in Chadbourn, North Carolina to Harris Roosevelt Smith and Nora Lee Faulk Yates. He departed this life Tuesday, May 19, 2020, at New Hanover Regional Medical Center in Wilmington, North Carolina.

He graduated from Westside High School in 1968 and North Carolina Central University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mathematics in 1972. Right after graduating he was recruited by the Food & Drug Administration and retired in January of 2008. In high school he was a star basketball player, and his love for athletics continued for the rest of his life, captaining many softball teams to championships and, picking up a passion for golf in 1986 that lasted the rest of his life.

He was known to many as "Buddy," "Tank," or "Smitty." As a young man he was the "town barber," setting up shop on his mama's back porch. Anyone who knew Glassco knew his distinctive walk and infectious laugh. He was dedicated to encouraging his children to be their best by expecting great things from them and letting them choose their own paths. After retiring to Sunset Beach, he actively supported the local arts community, commissioning many paintings from local artists. After his daily golf outing, he could be found having lunch at The Shack in Cherry Grove, South Carolina.

Surviving are his daughter, April Parker (James) of Durham, North Carolina; sons, Glasco Harris Smith of Germantown, Maryland and Matthew Thaddeus Smith of Oakland, California; sisters, Girlie Frink and Gwendolyn Gamble of Chadbourn, North Carolina; brothers, Raeford Smith (Veronica) of Baltimore, Maryland, James Smith of Chadbourn, North Carolina; Salvoties Smith (Reneé) of Hope Mills, North Carolina and Harris Edge (Leona) of Aberdeen, Maryland; four grandchildren, and one great-grandchild, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
