Obituary

*"For I am now ready to be offered,
and the time of my departure is at hand.
I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith."
II Timothy 4:6-7*

Beulah Mae Scott Johnson, daughter of the late James Scott and Emma Jones Scott, was born October 21, 1927 in Lawndale, North Carolina. She departed this life July 25, 2020 at Lower Cape Fear LifeCare in Whiteville, North Carolina.

She graduated high school in Greenville, Tennessee and had further training, specializing in computer information technology. Beulah was a member of the First Union Baptist Church of Richmond, Virginia where she served as a deaconess for many years and a member of the Senior Choir and in other capacities as needed.

She joined in holy wedlock to Walter G. Smith on July 4, 2010 and became a member of Horace Grove Baptist Church. She remained a faithful member until her demise.

Left to cherish fond memories are her husband, Walter Smith; daughters, Erica Taylor (Julian) of Saginaw, Michigan and Markieta Watson (Travis) of Miramar, Florida; son, Walter Gregory Smith (Laquita) of Saginaw, Michigan; eight grandchildren, sisters-in-law, Jacquelyn Tyler and Sharon Frazer (Joerardo) of Evergreen, North Carolina, Brenda Jones (James) of Saginaw, Michigan, Gwendolyn Scott (James) of Pearl City, Hawaii, Wanda Tart of Chadbourne, North Carolina, Shawn Baker of Lumberton, North Carolina, and Ina Smith of Dillon, South Carolina; brothers-in-law, Gresley Smith (Laura) of Saginaw, Michigan and Percy Shaw of Fairmont, North Carolina; special nieces, Margaret Williams (Eaminger), Johnie Mae Huggins, Thelma Anderson, Willie Anderson, and Monique McMillian (Jerome); a host of extended family members and friends.
