ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Leverne James is humbled at the out pouring of compassion and love extended to us in the illness and passing of Leverne. Your prayers surrounded us. Your expression sustained us; your care engaged us. Your presence supported us. Your gifts showered us. As we face the difficult days ahead, we solicit your continued prayers and support. May the Lord who sees in secret and openly keep your hearts and mind in perfect peace. May God richly bless each of you.

~Obituary~

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.
2 Corinthians 5:8

Leverne James

There comes a time in life when we have to bow to the will of God, and leave behind our loved ones.

On Sunday, August 23, 2020, Leverne James (Jank) departed this world and entered a land where there is no more pain, sickness and sorrow.

Leverne was born February 17, 1958. He was the youngest son of the late Edna James and grandparents, the late Isabella and Skeeter James. Leverne's mother and grandparents instilled in him the importance of knowing God. He was baptized at an early age by the Reverend C. B. Burroughs and became a member of Palmetto Baptist Church in Darlington, South Carolina.

He received his education in Florence Public School District #1. Upon graduation he enlisted in the United States Army from 1976 to 1984. When he got out of the military, he was employed by Dargan Construction Company. He was employed by Whiteville Plywood until his health failed.

Leverne was a loving uncle, brother, cousin, and friend. He leaves a lifetime of love and fond memories.

He leaves to cherish his memories a dedicated, devoted, loving, companion, Miss Mary Lois Brown of the home; one brother, William Perry (Mazeila) James of Baltimore, Maryland; two uncles, Daniel James and Henry (Beatrice) James of Florence, South Carolina; a nephew, Kenyotta Bostic of Atlanta, Georgia; a niece, Teneal Cobit James of Florence, South Carolina; two special cousins, Sam and Fran; and a host of great nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.

~Message From Wife~

To God Be the Glory
I thank God for the many years he gave us together.

The good and bad
I thank God for the love we shared
Sometimes we cannot understand why the storm has to come

I know our father has complete control
He permits our suffering here so that in heaven
We shall find greater glory and reward
Vern, I know we will never part in our hearts.
I will cherish your memory and your love
They will always be in my heart.

I love you
-Mary~
